Chinese did not decide to re-met last week ago when Chou was in Hanoi to pay his respects to Ho's memory, but the Chinese premier left before Ko-

Some observers thought that the Chinese, by being willing to receive Kossygin, indicated some softening in their anti-Soviet stand.

Nuclear Plan of Chinese Is Lagging

By LOUIS NEVIN
Associated Press Writer

LONDON (AP) — Red China's armed forces are not equipped for modern war and its nuclear arms program seems to be lagging badly, an authoritative defense research institute said today.

"China's conventional arms industry would be in no position to produce weapons on a scale needed for war; neither could Chinese-produced nuclear arms be a substitute for them," the Institute for Strategic Studies said in its annual survey of world military strength.

"China's military potential still lies basically in her large reserves of manpower," the report continued.

When a newsman commented that the report appeared to downgrade China's military strength, the director of the institute, Alastair Buchan, replied:

"Does that surprise you when you compare China's gross national product and industrial fabric with that of the Soviet Union or the United States?"

China's armed forces, he added, "are in a much poorer state in regard to equipment" than the Soviet Union's, but he refused to speculate on the future.

Chinese stocks of missile material might be sufficient for about 100 atomic bombs of nominal (20-kiloton) yield or a smaller amalgam of both hydrogen and atomic varieties," the report said. "Some of the fusion (H-bomb) weapons could be of several megatons."

"The lengthening gap that has been noted between nuclear tests may mean, however, that fissile material is not being produced in the quantities forecast in the West."

"Likewise, the Chinese missile program has apparently not progressed as fast as expected.
... It is possible that the advanced weapons program faltered in 1956-58 due to political harassment of the small scientific community engaged on the program, but efforts to restore the momentum must now be in progress."

The bulk of China's tanks were made or designed by the Soviets. The survey said China has a shortage of heavy artillery and a big lack of more sophisticated equipment.

The institute reported that the Soviet Navy has 120 submarines in Far Eastern waters, many of them armed with nuclear weapons. It said China has 33 submarines, and only one has tubes for ballistic missiles.

Turning to the comparative strength of the United States and the Soviet Union, the report said the Russians within the next four months will have more intercontinental and medium range nuclear weapons than the United States. But it said this threat and that of the numerically superior Communist forces in Europe are offset by the Chinese threat to the Russians.

The survey said the Soviets had 1,050 intercontinental ballistic missiles with nuclear warheads in July and are expected to have 1,150 by the end of the year. The United States has had 1,054 ICBMs since 1967 and is not building any new ones.

The Soviets have 700 intermediate and medium-range missiles, while the United States has none. However, the United States has 656 nuclear missiles
to be launched from submarines, while the Russians have 160.

Original Art in New Book

By MILES A. SMITH
AP Arts Editor

NEW YORK (AP) — The newest venture in the book world combines a literary classic with the original art of Salvador Dali, at $375 a copy. It is such a hot item that it is being rationed to bookstores across the nation.

The classic is Lewis Carroll's
"Alice's Adventures in Wonderland." Remember how Alice fell down the rabbit hole and met all sorts of odd creatures, such as the Dormouse and the Mad Hatter?

Accompanying the text is a set of original graphics by Dali.
The illustrations are original works of art—not reproductions.

The work is known as "The Dali Alice." It is being distributed now in an edition of 2,500 copies, plus 200 special copies at $750 each, jointly published by Random House and Maecenas Press.

Even before its official publication date of Nov. 5, it is a status symbol. For the first time, Random House has limited its distribution to a certain number of copies for each city.

Buffalo, N.Y., has been allocated 5 copies. There are 10 each available for Austin, Tex., Phoenix, Ariz., and the Tampa-
St. Petersburg area of Florida.
There are 15 each available for Indianapolis, Kansas City, Milwaukee, Nashville, Columbus,
New Orleans, Salt Lake City and Portland, Ore.

The figures go high for nearly a score of larger cities, topping off with 100 in Boston, 125 in San Francisco-Oakland, 150 in Chicago, 200 in Los Angeles and 550 in New York City.

In physical appearance "The Dali Alice" is different from the usual book. Its pages are not sewn together, and there is no binding. The text pages and the art pages—all of them 11 1/2 by 17 inches, on specially made rag paper—lie in a silk-lined "case-portfolio."

Dali has illustrated the text with what are known in the art trade as "mixed media original graphics."

A graphic is a work of art in multiple copies, such as prints or etchings, or a combination of several processes. Working with a copper plate, an artist may prepare an etching and then print over it with a woodcut, the result being "mixed media."

For each of the 12 chapters of "Alice," Dali colors a gravure in 6 to 12 colors, upon which is superimposed the impression of States has 656 nuclear missiles
to be launched from submarines, while the Russians have 160.

housing, anti-Catholic discrimination in making government appointments, and gerrymandering of political boundaries to favor the Protestants as three basic causes of discontent among the Catholics.

The report warned of "a rising sense of continuing injustices and grief among large sections of the Catholic population
... In respect to inadequacy of housing conditions, unfair methods of allocation of houses, and misuse in certain cases of house allocations to perpetuate Unionist control of the local authority."

The report recommended reforms beyond those already promised by the state government, including the setting up of a special board of judges to investigate complaints against the police and a new civil service embracing both central and local government administrations.

The commission accused the Ulster police of a lack of discipline and some brutality in trying to control marches and demonstrations.

CONFLICTING OPINIONS seem to be held by this man and woman seen at the "speaker's corner" in London's Hyde Park, where freedom of speech prevails.

The plane was due in Detroit about 12:45 p.m. CDT.
The flight left 80 minutes ear-were advised "from America"

Knudsen Fired by Ford Co.

By LOWELL MC KIRGAN
Associated Press Writer

DETROIT (AP) — Henry Ford II has named a three-man team to oversee the operations of the Ford Motor Co. after firing Semon E. Knudsen, who has been president of the big auto firm since February 1968.

Ford also indicated he would maintain a closer watch on the company's operations. He is chairman of the board and chief executive officer.

With the firing of Knudsen, Ford also eliminated the post of Ford would not amplify on his statement that Knudsen, advised of the decision Sept. 2, was leaving because "things did not work out as I had hoped they might."

Knudsen, 56, said his dismissal came as a complete surprise.
He said the company had prospered under his direction and Ford agreed with that evaluation.

"During the time that I was at the Ford Motor Co., Mr. Ford concurred with every important decision I made," Knudsen said.
"Working as an executive team, we materially improved the condition of the company."

"He never indicated to me any dissatisfaction with my services or the direction the company was taking," he said.
Knudsen joined Ford in February 1968 after resigning as fourth-ranking executive at General Motors Corp. He quit GM after being passed over for president in favor of Edward N.
Cole, who holds that post today.

Knudsen signed a five-year contract which would pay him $200,000 a year. He will receive $16,666 a month for the remaining 41 months of the contract unless he takes another job in the industry or otherwise breaks provisions of the contract.

Knudsen stated Thursday that he would not rejoin GM.
The three Ford executives named to replace Knudsen as heads of operational divisions were: Robert J. Hampton, 52, president of Philco-Ford and Tractor Operations; Robert Stevenson, 55, president of Ford International Automotive Operations; and Lee Iacocca, 45, president of Ford North American Automotive Operations.

Fear Polio May Return, Urge Vaccine

By FRANK CAREY
AP Science Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Government health experts, warning against a resurgence of polio if the nation lets down in vaccination guard, say potential pockets of the dread disease already exist in every metropolitan area of the country.

Public Health Service doctors cautioned against any undue complacency from the fact that so far this year only 10 cases of paralytic polio—the lowest rate in history—have been reported.
There were 48 such cases last year.

In the years before 1955 when vaccines first became available there were up to 20,000 cases annually of deadly or crippling polio.

But the government doctors said that even now on a nationwide basis approximately 30 percent of the children in the most highly susceptible 1 to 4 year age group remain without vaccine.

Most of these are in ghetto or other low socio-economic sectors.

The possibility of outbreaks in these communities worry doctors such as F. Robert Freckleton, chief of the immunization branch of the Public Health Service's Communicable Disease Center at Atlanta, Ga.

"If we lose any of our present momentum in the vaccination program—and we already have problems there—these pockets of unvaccinated or incompletely vaccinated children may increase in number and size," he said.

Freckleton and Dr. Michael
B. Gregg, chief of CDC's virus disease epidemiology section, discussed the situation in separate telephone interviews.

Gregg forecasts that unless something is done to improve the present rate and extent of polio vaccinations, and maintain it as new babies come along—"pockets of polio may be with us for many years—that is, for example, two or three cases in a neighborhood, four or five in a ghetto...."

He said epidemics such as occurred prior to 1955 currently aren't a threat because, even under the present incomplete vaccination coverage, between 75 and 80 per cent of the population up to age 40 have been vaccinated.

The black power leader arrived in London last Friday, but none of the transatlantic airlines would accept him, reportedly because they feared a hijack attempt or a demonstration on arrival in New York.

The British ruled Williams an undesirable alien and put him in prison where he immediately went on a hunger strike. He refused to return to Africa or to take a ship to America. TWA note inoculation programs.

Auto Firms Study GM Price Hike

DETROIT (AP) — Chrysler, Ford and American Motors had a new factor to consider today as they formulated their 1970 car prices—the 1970 General Motors price list which boosts price tags an average of about $125.

GM, however, puts the average hike at $119. It says that because of higher volume more weight should be given the lower-priced Chevrolets than the more expensive Cadillacs.

GM also announced Thursday it was continuing its warranty plan which provides coverage for the power train—engine, transmission and rear axle—for five years or 50,000 miles.

Henry Ford II, Ford Motor Co., board chairman, said a staff of executives was at work today considering the competitive impact of the GM warrenty. Ford previously had announced a one year, unlimited mileage plan covering the entire car, including power train.
GM's coverage for the entire car is for one year or 12,000 miles.

Ford, speaking at a news conference called after he announced he had fired Ford President Semon E. Knudsen, declined comment on prices. "We will have our answer next week," he said.

GM begins sales on Sept. 18,
Ford the next day and Chrysler on Sept. 23.

In announcing the price increases, GM Board Chairman James Roche cited payroll increases during the past year of 6 per cent, higher prices for metals and increases in state and local taxes.

The firm-supplied average price was an increase of 3.9 per cent over 1969 while the average increase of all models—$124.14 —was an increase of 3.6 per cent from 1969 cars.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer NEW YORK (AP) — The 1969-70 television season will start officially Sunday when NBC broadcasts the first episodes of two of its six new programs—"The Bill Cosby Show" and "The Bold Ones"—and have season premieres of returning programs.

CBS, whose own premiere week starts eight days later, Sept. 22, will present two special programs Sunday night. Under the network's new policy of encouraging pre-viewing, both specials were shown to the press in advance: "Archie and His Pals" and "Make Room for Granddaddy," a reunion of Danny Thomas and members of his old "Make Room for Daddy" cast.

"Archie and His Pals" is a half-hour cartoon program which undoubtedly fares better in its normal environment—CBS Saturday morning lineup of children's entertainment.

The animation and humor are on the primitive side. The story line is of dubious moral value—about a school election with one candidate a bad guy and the other a dim-wit. The dim-wit won.

The Danny Thomas special includes a bit of everything—comedy, music, sentiment, nostalgia and corn.

Danny still plays a nightclub entertainer, and now his son is about to become a father. The humor relies heavily on exasperated father jokes, smoothly transferred to an expectant grandfather. The program will have special appeal to the audience from the original situation comedy which ran 11 seasons. Rusty Hamer, who started as a little boy, has grown to maturity, and Angela Cartwright, who began working with Danny when she was four, has blossomed into a cute teenager.

CBS has announced that Andy Griffith, who quit television over a year ago to pursue a motion picture career, will be back in September 1970 with a new weekly situation comedy series in a format completely unrelated to his old Mayberry neighbors.

Two NBC game shows will have new hosts when the network's daytime schedules officially begins its new season on Sept. 29.

Bob Clayton who has been the announcer on "Concentration" for almost six years, will take over as permanent host. Ed McMahon, who replaced Hugh Downs several months ago, will leave—pressure of other business interests, he said.

Larry Blyden, on the panel of "You're Putting Me On," will move up to the host's spot. Bill Layden is leaving the show because its production schedule required him to commute weekly from his Los Angeles home to New York.

HE MADE A FAST TRIP

Dear Helen: People who say marijuana, hashish, and all aren't dangerous should look at the bashed hood of my car! I had parked on a city street. Just as I was walking away a body came hurtling through the air and landed on my car. I found out later this young man had leaped from a third story hotel window. Luckily my hood broke his fall, and he is recovering in a hospital. You see, he thought he could fly. . . he was up on drugs, and he made a very fast trip down.

Believe me, I had a hard time convincing my insurance company that it wasn't I who was hallucinating!—WHY ME?

Dear Helen: I am a 21-year old Afro-American college co-ed. While home for the summer I met a nice young man—actually I knew each other slightly in high school—and he asked me out several times.

My parents, however, don't like him simply because he has a darker complexion. They don't admit this is the reason, but a few remarks have slipped. Our family is quite light.

I'm not in love with this fellow, but I do enjoy his company and I resent not having the same freedom at home that I have at college.

You'd think my folks would understand that discrimination is not for them. —SOCALLY HINDERED

Dear S.H.: You are free, black, and 21— and wiser than your folks. Stay that way!—H.

Dear Helen: I'm a 17-year old girl in love with a 27-year-old man who is getting a divorce and has two children. He is not like other married guys out for a fling. He wants to marry me.

All my friends tell me to leave him as there is something wrong with an older guy who dates teen-agers. I haven't told my parents I want to marry him.

Also, they don't know his real age or that he has been married. Should I wait and spring the news all at once, or should I believe what my friends say?

—MIXED UP

Dear Mixed Up: If you were absolutely sure you loved this man, you wouldn't be seeking the advice of friends and columnists, nor would you hide him from your parents.

So wait until you are sure. Meanwhile, level with your folks!—H.

Dear Helen: There's a boy on our block who is a real doll, but he never comes out in the street to play kick ball with the rest of the kids because all he's interested in is fishing. How can I get him to notice me?—DARLENE

Dear Darlene: Why don't you take up fly-fishing as a hobby? To catch a boy use the bait he likes best.—H.

Home Opener Tonight: Cats Vs. Prescott

By RALPH ROUNTON

Star Sports Writer

Assurance and confidence are all that's lacking as the Hope Bobcats tangle with the Prescott Curley Wolves tonight at Hammons Stadium at 8 in an all-important non-conference game.

Many of the Bobcat players were on hand Thursday night as the Bobkittens thrashed Prescott 25-0, and hopefully they learned from the experience. What they saw was a good exhibition of teamwork in offensive blocking and protecting the passer, one of the shortcomings last week at Ashdown.

It is an apprehensive mood that many take into tonight's game, knowing full well that the Bobcats could either break it wide open or fall flat. Surely none wants a repeat of last year's scoreless tie, when both sides walked off crying.

Many people not directly connected with the Bobcats do not realize the full importance of beating Prescott. Practices this week have been tough since the 14-6 nightmare at Ashdown, as Head Coach Ronnie Higgins worked on the team's lack of killer instinct.

That has meant some pretty long and tiring practices, but nobody got hurt and everybody is entering the game this evening in good health.

What Hope must do is move the ball consistently around the goal line, which has been the major Bobcat weakness for about three years running. As elaborated here earlier in the week, the Cats must forget about bad breaks existing, for these unpleasant memories can occur any time the players think of them as excuses for losing.

There is only one excuse for losing. Your team was not up to the challenge when it counted most, and so some pride is drained with every defeat.

Common questions this week have concerned the credibility of reports that Stamps, 12-6 conquerors of Prescott last Friday, is really a forecasted powerhouse in Class B. They are, but there still is quite a jump from "B" to "A".

As usual, I am picking Hope to win. Reasons include better balance in personnel at HHS, more experience, and the pride of 43 players and a coaching staff at stake. Uncommon as it is to pick a shutout, I call Hope a 13-0 winner, which should be quite satisfying to all concerned.

Elsewhere in today's Star is the Tenth Annual Football Edition, which features the Bobcats, the Razortbacks, and all high school and college teams in this area. On a different style layout, this year's special edition contains more stories and varied pictures, without the usual individual picture for each squadman on the Bobcats. It is the product of about six weeks of writing and planning; we hope you enjoy it and find it interesting.

Yerger Jr. Bobkittens Win 26-0

By RALPH ROUNTON

Star Sports Writer

Give a football team some confidence, and they'll murder you. With a 19-point third quarter icing the cake, the Yerger Junior High Bobkittens whipped the Prescott Curley Cubs 25-0 in the season opener before a good crowd at Hammons Stadium Thursday night.

This particular Bobkitten squad, coming off last year's 6-1 powerhouse mediocre. But the offense executed with few insignificant flaws, and the defense was greedy to the point of excellence.

Off on the right track at 1-0, the Bobkittens now look to an inexperienced but determined DeQueen team away from home next Thursday night, and an opening road win would put things in high gear.

At the first last night it looked bleak for the local fans, as the Yerger squad fumbled the ball away on the first play from scrimmage. That gave Prescott the ball only 29 yards from paydirt, but the aroused Hope defense pushed the Cubs back ten yards in three plays.

Moments later, a short punt from the end zone gave Prescott the ball at the Bobkittens 27, and two plays later it was first and ten from the 17. Here the defense rose up to stop the Curley Cubs, though, and on four downs they lined up for a field goal.

The kick was deflected at the line of scrimmage, and Hope's Buddy Ingram grabbed it up at the 10 and made off. He nearly went all the way, but after 28 yards his flight was knocked out-of-bounds at the Kitten 38.

Still the Bobkittens were unable to punch out the first down, and the first quarter ended 0-0 with Prescott punting from its 38. The kick was hurried after a high snap, and the resulting kick only carried three yards past the line of scrimmage to the 41.

Here the Bobkittens ran off their first down of the season, and though they had to punt from the Prescott 34 the ice had been broken. The Cubs were pushed back to the five in three plays, and a punt was lost by Hope's David Johnson and the visitors had the ball at their own 25.

Two plays later came the turning point, as another fumble gave the ball back to the Kittens. Using halfback Johnson six times in a row, Yerger moved 31 yards to the score in seven plays and two minutes.

After Johnson had gained 8, 4, 5, 2, 15, and 2 yards, with one penalty in the middle, fullback David Huddleston dove to the score with 0:26 left in the half. The extra point was no good, but Hope led it 6-0 at the intermission.

From that point, it was no contest. Prescott took the second half kickoff and were pushed to 4th and 15 from their 36, before a 49-yard punt was fielded at the Hope 15 by Kitten Jackie Barker, who set fly down the left side.

Barker went 75 yards before being sideswiped at the ten, but two Johnson carries put the ball on the one with third and goal. Quarterback Ingram sneaked in with 4:29 left in the quarter, and the PAT was missed to leave the score at 12-0.

Now on fire, the Bobkitten defense gave the Curley Cubs possession at the Prescott 31. On the very first down, monster man Danny Joyce intercepted at the 41, and ran it back 19 yards to the 22. A penalty bogged down the advance, though developing a 4th and eight play from the 20.

Here Ingram dropped back in the pocket and fired a bullet to end Jackie Barker in the back of the end zone with 2:01 still left in the quarter. Once more the conversion attempt was no good, but the 18-0 Hope lead looked mighty good.

Starting this time at their 35, Prescott fumbled it away on first down again, and Yerger took over at the Curley Cub 31. On an option play Huddleston lumbered to the 17, but a 13-yard scoring run by Ingram was nullified by offsides. Unruffled, Ingram just rolled outside again, and sped 14 yards to the four.

This time it was David Johnson bullying over from the four on the last play of the third quarter, and Huddleston's kick split the uprights to make it 25-0. Now substituting freely, Bobkitten Coach Gaylord Solomon watched Prescott drive for the first time in the game, before the reserves buckled up and held the Cubs on downs at the Hope 18.

From there the second unit offense made a first down to run out the clock, climaxing a very satisfying win. Coach Solomon couldn't do much more than just smile, but the crowd and the enthusiastic pep squad were ecstatic for some time after the final whistle.

Along with those names already mentioned, Bobkitten Wade Harris goes down as a big asset in the line, and some of his tackles were crushing. Wade handled the punting snaps very well too, and anchored the fine defensive performance.

David Johnson racked up 90 yards on 15 carries to lead the runners, and Huddleston garnered 31 yards on only five trips. Ingram did a fine quarterbacking job and passed well, though he only completed one of five aeriels. Overall, the team reflected an outstanding coaching job by Solomon and assistants George Slaughter and Paul Adcock, and confidence is here to stay for the Kittens.

Rosewall Wins Planter Tennis Play

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP) — Ken Rosewall, the last survivor among five Australian entries, defeated Butch Buchholz of St. Louis 6-3, 6-4 to win the $25,000 Planter Professional Tennis Tournament Thursday.

The 35-year-old Aussie, who won the $5,000 first prize, wasted little time in winning the straight set victory. He broke service twice to roll up a 5-0 lead in the first set before Buchholz rallied to win three games in a row.

Rosewall responded by winning the ninth and final game of the set.

In doubles, Marty Riessen of Evanston and Tom Okker of Holland, the second-ranking world doubles team, won the 25-0. Now substituting freely, Bobkitten Coach Gaylord Solomon watched Prescott drive for the first time in the game, before the reserves buckled up and held the Cubs on downs at the Hope 18.

From there the second unit offense made a first down to run out the clock, climaxing a very satisfying win. Coach Solomon couldn't do much more than just smile, but the crowd and the

2 Standouts in National League Play

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN

Associated Press Sports Writer

The only Chinese-Hawaiian in the majors and a pitcher just up from the minors played key roles Thursday night in an amazing National League division races.

The first would be Mike Lum, No. 5 in the Braves' outfield but No. 1 in all Atlanta today after a pinch single that beat San Francisco 5-3.

The other is Jeff James, a right-hander making his first NL appearance of 1969, who tamed Chicago 4-3 with last-out help from Grant Jackson as Philadelphia sent the Cubs plummeting to their eighty consecutive defeat.

Elsewhere, the New York Mets blanked Montreal 4-0, Cincinnati held off San Diego 6-4, Los Angeles nipped Houston 1-0 and Pittsburgh edged St. Louis 3-2.

The standings in the East find the Mets two games ahead of the Cubs, with Pittsburgh eight out and St. Louis 8½ back. In the West, it's Cincinnati back on top by one percentage point over Atlanta, San Francisco is one-half game out, Los Angeles 1½ back and Houston 2½ out.

In the American League, Baltimore tripped Boston 4-2, Cleveland downed Detroit 5-2, the Chicago White Sox stopped Minnesota 4-0, Oakland defeated Seattle 6-3, Washington trounced the New York Yankees 7-3 and Kansas City blanked California 3-0.

Lum came to bat in the eighth inning of a 3-3 game with two out and the bases loaded after the Giants issued an intentional walk to Sonny Jackson. His single to center off Frank Linzy scored Oscar Brown, running for Rico Carty, and Orlando Cepeda, Carty and Cepeda opened the inning with singles.

"I can't think of a better extra outfielder on any club," is the way manager Luman Harris described Lum earlier in the season. "And there are plenty of major league clubs he could play for regularly."

"I'd rather be a regular," says Lum, "but if I can't, then this is the next best thing. When you have guys in the outfield like Aaron, Alou, Carty and Gonzalez, what can you do?"

Willie McCovey slammed two homers for the Giants, his 43rd and 44th of the season, while Hank Aaron hammered No. 41 for the Braves.

Lum's pinch hit gave the victory to Ron Reed, 16-9. Hoyt Wilhelm, the 46-year-old knuck-leballer recently acquired from California, made his first NL appearance since 1957 and worked a scoreless ninth inning.

Bobby Bonds of the Giants struck out for the 164th time this season, a league record.

The Cubs and Phillies were tied 1-1 in the eighth when Ernie Banks homered for Chicago, No. 22. But the Phils came right back to tie the score on consecutive doubles by Tony Taylor and Johnny Briggs and Richie Allen followed with his 30th homer.

That gave James a 4-2 lead. Willie Smith hit a pinch homer for the Cubs with one out in the ninth and with two away Glenn Beckert singled, Jackson came on and retired Billy Williams on a pop fly.

James, just up from the Pacific Coast League, started in place of the injured Jerry Johnson. The right-hander spent 1968 with the Phillies and compiled a 4-4 record—2-0 against the Cubs—with one complete game—an 8-0 blanking of the Cubs.

The Phillies scored their first run on an odd play. With Taylor on second, Briggs on first and two out, Dick Selma wound up on a 3-2 pitch to Allen and the runners took off. Selma changed course and fired to third, shouting, "Ron, Ron."

But Ron Santo was concentrating on the plate and the ball sailed into left field as Taylor raced home.

The Cubs' skis has left them in a state of confusion, Banks wandered around the clubhouse after the defeat chanting, "We're gonna win, we're gonna win, we're gonna win." Then he turned to pitcher Ken Holtzman and asked, "Ain't we?"

Pete Rose drove in three runs with a double and bunt single as the Reds ran up a 6-0 lead on the Lowly Padres. Wayne Granger came in for his 76th appearance to save the victory for Gary Nolan after Roberto Pena hit a two-run homer in the fifth and the Padres got two more in the eighth.

The Mets increased their East Division lead to two games—three in the loss column—as Gary Gentry stopped the Expos with six hits. It was New York's first two consecutive triumphs in the last 29 games, the National League West.

BATTING—Pete Rose, Reds, drove in three runs with a double and two singles as Cincinnati beat San Diego 6-4 and moved back into first place in the National League West.

John H. Barnhill

Director of Athletics

Although his active coaching years are now well behind him, no one in the state of Arkansas feels a greater sense of pride in the success of Razorback football over the past decade than John Barnhill, the UofA's Director of Athletics since January, 1946. This success is the fulfillment of a goal set by the former Tennessee Volunteer when he came to Arkansas with a plan over 23 years ago.

To know Barnhill is to know that he saw no overnight miracle for the Razorback program. If the UofA athletic future was to reach its full potential, it would take personal dedication, patience and a unified state. An early taste of success would help — and Barnhill whet the appetite of the faithful with a surprise SWC co-championship in 1946. That was a year of single wing football with service veterans and 17-year olds. He had one super-star in American tailback Clyde Scott. It was enough, however, to excite the Razorback fans — and it started a program.

He first greatly increased the largely local efforts of the Razorback Clubs — then headed by Chism Reed of Paris. Within a few years, he pioneered the UofA Sports Network, the Educational and Athletic Scholarship Program, the Wild Hog organization and finally the Razorback Trust Fund.

His 1946 football team played in the Cotton Bowl as SWC co-champions tying LSU. Then in 1947, Arkansas won an invitation to the first Dixie Bowl game at Birmingham, Ala., defeating William & Mary, 21-19. Finally, after four years in the dual role of athletic director and head football coach, Barnhill retired from active coaching to devote his full energies to building the department. The UofA has reaped the rewards of this unselfish decision.

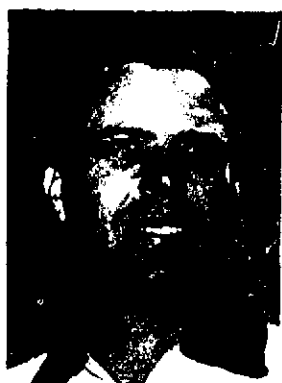

For example, Barnhill was intent upon developing a physical plant that would attract the finest high school athletes — and support growing attendances. He devoted his energies toward this program — first helping to promote War Memorial Stadium at Little Rock where the Porkers could play before fans from all over the state; then toward enlargements of Razorback Stadium; the construction of a new field house; and finally with the completion of a beautiful athletic dormitory. The UofA Board of Trustees recognized these efforts by naming the field house in his honor in 1956. It was in recognition of these many contributions to UofA athletics that Barnhill was inducted into the Arkansas Hall of Fame in 1960.

One of Tennessee's finest all-round athletes, Barnhill earned nine varsity letters at UT from 1925 to 1927, was twice named Volunteer "Athlete-of-the-Year," and was an All-Southern guard in 1926-27. He was named to play in the 1927 Los Angeles All-Star game, fore-runner of the East-West Shrine classic.

After three years at Bristol, Tenn. high school (with a 27-3 record), he returned to Tennessee as an assistant on the Bob Neyland staff. He was elevated to varsity line coach in 1934, and appointed head football coach at Tennessee when Neyland left for the service in 1941. In four seasons (with no team fielded in 1943), he guided the Vols to two Bowl games (Rose and Sugar), finished with a 35-5-2 record and was named SEC "Coach-of-the-Year" in 1944. Including his four seasons at Arkansas (1946-49), Barnhill coached four Bowl teams and had a career coaching record of 54-22-5.

Tennessee honored him with a special John Barnhill Day in 1966, and he has also been named to the Tennessee state Hall of Fame. A widower since his wife Kathryn died in 1957, Barnhill has one daughter, Mrs. Nancy Trumbo, a UofA graduate and now school teacher in Fayetteville. He lives near the UofA's athletic facilities at 1425 Markham Road.

Frank Broyles Head Football Coach

The real mark of success — in football as in the business world, is an enthusiasm for excellence that has no end. Every year is a bright new challenge that somehow rekindles your energies for a peak performance. This is the nature of Frank Broyles, the man who has directed Arkansas' football fortunes for the past 11 years. Although he has enjoyed a full measure of prosperity since coming to the UofA (an unprecedented six SWC titles and seven Bowl teams), he has lost none of the drive that motivated his earlier successes. The 1968 season was a perfect example of that enthusiasm.

More than a successful football coach (he's 91-34-2 for his entire career, 86-30-1 at Arkansas and 56-18-1 in SWC play), Broyles has become a statesman where college football is concerned — articulate as a speaker and influential in matters of policy. He is now serving as 1st Vice President of the American Football Coaches Association and will be elevated to the presidency of that group at their next convention in January. In an 11-year span, he has lifted the Razor grid program to one of national prominence. The UofA record book has been re-written in virtually every department, he has produced 11 All-Americans and 53 Razorbacks have earned All-SWC honors.

Broyles came to Arkansas in 1958 following one year as head football coach at Missouri. His reputation as an assistant coach at Georgia Tech (1951-56) merited the promotion — and he was soon on his way toward fulfilling a long ambition. The 1957 Tigers finished 5-4-1, the best Missouri record in a decade — and after a disappointing start at Arkansas, success came almost overnight. That '58 team finished with four straight wins, and Broyles was on his way. A tri-championship and Gator Bowl bid came in 1959; the 1960 Porkers won the SWC title outright and played in the Cotton Bowl; again in 1961, Arkansas shared the conference title (the first team to win three straight titles in 20 years) and earn a Sugar Bowl bid; and the '62 Porkers went back to the Sugar Bowl with a 9-1 record. In four years time, the state of Arkansas was transformed into a sea of adulation for Razorback football.

The spell was interrupted briefly in 1963 when a team of sophomores finished 5-5 — but they learned their lesson well. During the next two seasons, Arkansas wrote gridiron history in the Southwest Conference — with a national championship in 1964 (11-0), two consecutive undefeated teams, and a record winning streak

22 games long. The pace was slowed by a young team in 1967 — but the 1968 Porkers raced to a 9-1 season and capped the year with a 16-2 Sugar Bowl win over Georgia. The 11-year period is unmatched in Arkansas football history.

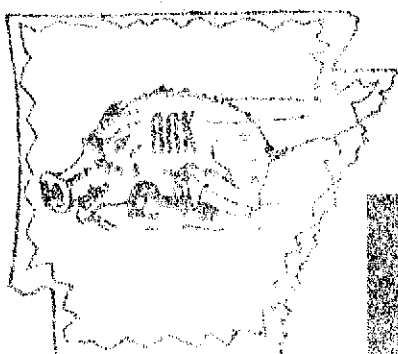

The athletic career of John Franklin Broyles has been extraordinary from the start. He was an outstanding four-sport athlete at Decatur, Ga. high school, and went on to become one of Georgia Tech's finest. He earned 10 letters as a Yellow-jacket — was twice All-SEC in football, named SEC "Player-of-the-Year" in 1946 and was selected on the second team All-SEC basketball squad three straight years. His alma mater inducted him into its Hall of Fame a few years ago.

After receiving a degree in industrial management at Tech, Broyles spurned a pro football offer to go to Baylor on the staff of Bob Woodruff in 1947. He developed outstanding quarterbacks for Woodruff there — and later at Florida in 1950; and finally returned to Tech on the Bobby Dodd staff in 1951.

Now second in tenure among all Arkansas football coaches since 1894, Broyles has reaped a harvest of personal awards. He's had coaching assignments at the College All-Star game, the Coaches All-American game, the Hula Bowl and the Copper Bowl classic. In addition, he's

Irish Words Only Stir Up More Strife

By COLIN FROST
Associated Press Writer
BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — Prime Minister James Chichester-Clark admitted today that his Protestant party has treated the Roman Catholics badly and reaffirmed its determination on reform.

Commenting on a judicial inquiry's report on Northern Ireland's year of violence, Chichester-Clark said: "It is self-evident that in the past all of us have made mistakes. The question is, What do we do now—profit from these mistakes, or sink into a welter of recriminations which would insure that those mistakes will be repeated."

"We are quite prepared to accept the facts the report contains. What we have to do now is get on with the reforms we have promised."

Militant Protestant and Catholic leaders denounced the report which accused them of fomenting the religious strife.

The 10,000-word report, released today, was the result of a judicial inquiry by a three-man commission into the nature and causes of the troubles between Ulster's Protestant majority and Catholic minority.

The inquiry began March 3. Last month's riots, in which eight persons were killed, occurred while the report was being prepared.

Pentagon Probing NCO Scandal

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Pentagon sources indicate an investigation of financial irregularities in military service clubs is widening. "The investigators keep turning up new leads," said one source.

He described the problem as appearing most acute in Vietnam, but said mishandling of funds, goods and services also is suspected in clubs in West Germany and the United States as well.

The inquiry centers on the way club managers used funds available to operate the facilities.

Although money to operate the clubs does not come out of the federal treasury, the Pentagon has the responsibility for assuring that there are no irregularities.

The armed services are due to report to Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird by Sept. 19 on what their problems have discovered and what corrective action has been taken.

However, the widening scope of the investigation suggests the Sept. 19 report can only be an interim accounting.

And the Pentagon has decided to bring no charges against anybody until a Senate investigation into the situation is opened later this month.

This, it was explained, will permit the senators to question anybody they wish without being inhibited by the possibility that such inquiries could affect the course of any criminal cases.

Also, if a person is formally charged, he might not be available for Senate questioning.

Laird obviously is bending over backward to cooperate with the Senate group and has pledged full support to the committee.

A total of 50 military investigators is on the case now, and although Navy, Marine and Air Force service clubs are being scrutinized, Pentagon sources said the soft spots appeared to be chiefly in the Army.

Senate and Pentagon officials have spoken in terms of possible millions of dollars of alleged kickbacks other improper profits.

Surprise Meeting of Russian and Chinese Premiers Fruitless

By ANTHONY COLLINGS
Associated Press Writer
MOSCOW (AP) — The Russians said Premier Alexei Kosygin's surprise meeting with Chinese Premier Chou En-lai in Peking Thursday was "useful," but they gave no indication if anything was achieved.

After the first top-level conference between the two Communist giants in 4½ years, the Soviet news agency Tass said in a 150-word announcement: "The two sides openly explained their positions and held a conversation useful for both sides."

Peking's New China News Agency issued a 62-word statement in Tokyo saying the two premiers had "a frank conversation," but it also gave no further details.

It was assumed that Kosygin and Chou discussed the battles along their long Asian border, but the words "frank" and "useful" in Communist communiques usually indicate disagreement. It was thought the two leaders also discussed aid to the North Vietnamese and the Viet Cong.

But the deep-seated differences between the Kremlin and the Chinese appear too great to be talked away. Their struggle for leadership of the world Communist movement has provoked a split that seems destined to remain. It has been accompanied by exchanges of abuse and condemnation that made even meeting at the same table difficult.

Shortly after the New China News Agency announced the meeting, it issued a report in Tokyo in which it said the Soviet Union's wooing of Japan was an indication that the Moscow leadership is "ridden with innumerable crises and is at the end of its rope."

Kosygin called in at Peking on his way back to Moscow from the funeral of North Vietnamese President Ho Chi Minh in Hanoi.

Tass earlier had reported Kosygin's arrival Wednesday in Dushanbe, capital of Soviet Tadzhikistan, so apparently he turned around and flew eastward 2,600 miles to Peking.

The New China News Agency said Kosygin and Chou met at the airport, and Tass reported the Soviet premier arrived in Moscow Thursday night.

The Peking correspondent of the Japan Broadcasting Corp. reported he was told the meeting "lasted only a short time."

Vote O.K.'s Splitoff at Dollarway

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — Residents of the Hardin community Thursday won the right to secede from the predominantly Negro Dollarway School District.

The vote on the proposal was 579 for and 507 against.

The all-white Hardin community sends about 300 students to the Dollarway schools. Earlier in the week, a suit was filed in U.S. District Court asking that an injunction be issued to stop Thursday's election.

U.S. District Court Judge J. Smith Henley refused, however, to issue the injunction.

Farm Community in Mississippi Routed by Gas From Wreck

GLENDORA, Miss. (AP) — Clouds of lethal phosgene gas, spewed from four railroad tank cars that exploded near here Thursday night, endangering areas as far away as 30 miles today after forcing the evacuation of thousands of persons.

No fatalities and one injury were reported, although some livestock was killed, authorities said.

Glendora is about 30 miles north of Greenwood. The tank cars were carrying highly flammable vinyl chloride which was transformed into phosgene gas by the fire which followed the explosion. Officials said the blaze would have to burn itself out and refused to speculate how long the gas would be a threat.

Council of Churches to Back Blacks

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — American Protestant and Orthodox leaders have outlined their answer to the Black Manifesto — they'll put big money into black economic advancement, and let black churchmen decide who uses it and how.

"Black self-determination" and "trust in our black brethren" were cited as keystones of the approach. Its lack of limitations was sharply criticized by some whites.

It was hammered out Thursday in a sometimes heated session of the general board of the National Council of Churches, which embraces 33 denominations with a total of more than 42 million members.

The group also was termed a "programmatic expression of the aspiration of black churchmen" — and these were for large-scale church funding, including $500,000 immediately, to use as they judge best.

The solution, skirting direct funding of the BECC but financing black churchmen who support it, was similar to that adopted in last week's Episcopal Church convention.

Some white delegates here, including leaders of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), pushed unsuccessfully for amendments aimed at prohibiting use of church funds to support groups advocating violence or government overthrow.

The Rev. Dr. George G. Beasley of Indianapolis declared: "If we give this money with no strings attached, there is a high degree of probability that it will go to the Black Economic Development Conference, whose own document states its purpose is to overthrow the American system."

Negro churchmen, however, strongly opposed any restrictions, saying this would be a slur on their honor and intentions.

Cystic Fibrosis Drive Sept. 22

Friends and neighbors will open the annual door-to-door appeal of the "Breath of Life" campaign for funds to combat children's lung diseases during the week of Sept. 22 - 27th, it was announced today by Rev. J. D. Webb, campaign chairman for Howard County, Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation.

Rev. Webb, who is the pastor of Central Baptist Church in Mineral Springs, is the father of Charles Webb, the teenage co-chairman of the Cystic Fibrosis Fund campaign. Charles is a victim of c-f.

Mr. Webb, stated that Mrs. Mike Pope, is serving as co-chairman of the fund for the Saratoga area, and that Mrs. Pope and other volunteers will make house-to-house calls to ask for contributions to the campaign which this year includes all children suffering from lung-damaging conditions as well as Cystic Fibrosis.

Cystic Fibrosis is a serious problem in Arkansas, as it is in other states. Approximately one in every twenty persons carry the genetic trait making them capable of producing a child with cystic fibrosis.

Last year 133 children under the age of two years died in this state with respiratory diseases. Twelve of these were c-f patients. These children range in years from four years to nineteen years. Indeed, c-f is a serious problem! Research promises new hope for the five million children affected by respiratory diseases. Give, the breath of life - give generously.

Witnesses said the derailment occurred after the train engineer made an emergency stop to avoid hitting an elderly man. Some 600 National Guardsmen were called into the area to help with evacuation.

Traffic was reported bumper to bumper part of the night as residents fled the area. Injured in the blaze was Charles Thomas of Tutwiler, a power company employee admitted to a Clarksdale hospital with burns.

Picture of Hard-Rock Revolutionary: That's Robert F. Williams

By MIKE ROUSE
Associated Press Writer
MONROE, N.C. (AP) — "Oh lovely madonna dispel the sorrow from your face. Your sturdy ebony hands can mold a mighty race."

Thus wrote Robert Franklin Williams, black American militant, in self-exile in Red China. The lines are from a poem, "Black Madonna on Harlem Square," published in The Crusader, a newsletter Williams started when he was an obscure proponent of Negro advancement in his home town of Monroe, population 11,000, seat of Union County, N.C.

Williams, 44, speaks in soft tones but his message is so hard.

When H. Rap Brown, Eldridge Cleaver and Stokely Carmichael were still high school teenagers, Robert Williams was collecting arms, courting Fidel Castro and urging his fellow blacks to "meet violence with violence."

His doctrine got him suspended as president of the Union County branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. But a few months later he was re-elected.

Williams, who had no visible means of support except subscriptions to The Crusader, first gained nationwide publicity in 1960 when he made two trips to Cuba. He called that country "the kind of democracy I always hoped the United States would be." He found it free of racial discrimination.

A reporter who visited his home during that period counted 13 military-type carbines in the living room, a double-barreled shotgun propped up at the front door and a revolver on the dining room table.

Miniature Cuban flags were displayed inside the frame house and Williams flew a large one in his yard.

Williams, a goateed, 200-pound six-footer, apparently had little following locally. Between 1960 and 1961 his NAACP chapter dwindled from 39 paid members to 13, according to Roy Wilkins, NAACP executive director.

In August of 1961 a group of "freedom fighters" returning north from Jackson, Miss., by bus were invited to stop off at Monroe. Seventeen of the 45 on the bus accepted.

Williams set up a "freedom house" for his guests. Daily picketing of the courthouse square in protest of segregation

Red Fleet Buildup Is New Threat

By PETER MUCCINI
Associated Press Writer
LONDON (AP) — The buildup of Soviet warships in the Mediterranean was seen by experts in London today as a radical change in the traditional role of the Russian navy.

Twelve more ships sailed through the Strait of Gibraltar Thursday and the British Ministry of Defense estimated that Soviet naval strength in the area now at 44 ships.

Other allied sources placed the total of Soviet ships at nearer 70. Of these, 44 were surface and subsurface combat vessels and the rest intelligence-gathering, logistic and supply units.

The U.S. 6th Fleet in the Mediterranean numbers 50 ships, including two attack aircraft carriers. The Russian fleet does not include aircraft carriers.

One informed source summed up the situation this way: In the past the Soviet navy played a relatively secondary role supporting the army. The Russians evidently have decided to increase naval expenditure and that this military arm should strike out on its own throughout the world "showing the flag."

The chief aim was to make clear to the United States that its Navy was not the sole master on the high seas.

The Russians also have an interest in the eastern Mediterranean. Their two main anchorage ports are at Port Said and Alexandria in Egypt, both well within the range of frequent outbreaks of Arab-Israeli hostilities.

The experts said the presence of a large Soviet naval force could be aimed at deterring Israel from expanding its military campaigns and at warning the United States against intervention.

Forrest City Warrant Out for Watson

FORREST CITY, Ark. (AP) — A warrant for the arrest of Lance "Sweet Willie" Wine Watson has been issued at Forrest City.

The warrant charges Watson, the leader of a black militant group from Memphis known as the Invaders, with "being a disorderly person" during a disturbance Aug. 26.

Watson was beaten the night of Aug. 26 when members of a crowd of several hundred whites accosted him and four other persons, including three white newsmen.

Watson suffered a broken elbow during the disturbance.

Bomber Raids in Vietnam Suspected

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — Acting on orders from Washington, the U.S. Command canceled B52 bombing raids scheduled for South Vietnam Thursday night and today in a peace overture to Ho Chi Minh's successors, military sources said.

There was no immediate indication when the big bombers would go into action again over South Vietnam. Some sources speculated the suspension might last as long as 36 hours, which would carry it past President Nixon's conference in Washington today with his top diplomatic and military advisers on Vietnam.

Meanwhile B52 attacks continued on the Ho Chi Minh trail through eastern Laos, the main North Vietnamese infiltration and supply corridor to South Vietnam. B52 raids also continued there during the three-day cease-fire this week for Ho's funeral although they were suspended over South Vietnam.

There was speculation that the new suspension was accompanied by diplomatic peace moves elsewhere. A South Vietnamese source said there "will be some peace moves soon."

Military sources said B52 missions scheduled for Thursday night were suddenly canceled without explanation.

"Part of the schedule was canceled on orders from Washington," said one source. "We had missions scheduled for the 1st and 3rd Corps, but they were canceled. I don't know why. I don't know the interplay in Washington."

The South Vietnamese government had no immediate comment.

Sources also reported that the weekly average of sorties the U.S. Air Force's fighter-bombers had dropped 38 per cent since the beginning of the year because there is "less ground action and less call for support."

There was no indication how long the B52 suspension would remain in effect. There was speculation that the raids would be put on an on-and-off basis geared to the intensity of the enemy's activity.

"It is a gesture of de-escalation, a political move," one source said. "There is a new leadership in Hanoi."

Another military source compared the suspension to the halt in the bombing of North Vietnam on Dec. 24, 1965, which President Lyndon B. Johnson ordered as part of a "peace offensive."

Johnson sent the bombers back into action on Jan. 31, 1966, after 37 days, because he wanted from Hanoi.

U.S. Making New Gesture for Peace

By LEWIS GULICK
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon personally ordered a 36-hour halt in B52 bombing missions over South Vietnam but has now directed that the bombings be resumed, the White House announced today.

Press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said the temporary cessation in sorties was ordered to give policymakers time to determine what the Communists intended to do about the level of flight following the 72-hour cease-fire they had announced to mark the death of Ho Chi Minh.

Ziegler said the level of enemy activity now has reverted to pre-truce levels and that, for that reason, Nixon had sent the big bombers back into the skies.

The announcement came as the President closeted himself with key advisers from Washington, Saigon and Paris for a broad review of the Vietnam situation.

The press aide, in seeking to explain the motivation for the brief halt in B52 operations, said Washington wanted to determine whether the Communist-initiated truce "had political significance beyond the death of Ho."

In other words, the question was whether the other side might continue to hold down military activity even after the end of the cease-fire period.

In addition, Ziegler said, the United States wanted to make it clear that the enemy and not the U.S. forces would be responsible for resumption of full-scale fighting.

He said the enemy picked up the military tempo even before the end of the truce period and that therefore it was found necessary to delay B52 missions for a 12-hour period following the truce.

W.R. Denies Parley With Delegation

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller says four members of the state's Congressional delegation did not pledge support of his attempts to ease racial tension as previously reported.

"For the record, I neither asked the members of the delegation for pledges of support, either direct or implied, nor were they given," Rockefeller said in a prepared statement.

It was reported Tuesday that Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., and Reps. David Pryor, D-Ark., John Paul Hammer Schmidt, R-Ark., and Bill Alexander, D-Ark., had pledged to support the governor's efforts to ease racial tension in the state.

The report was issued after the governor and the four met at Rockefeller's home at Winthrop Farms.

"I considered the meeting to be a fruitful one and I appreciated the opportunity to brief the four members of the delegation on my actions in dealing with racial tensions wherever they may occur in Arkansas," Rockefeller said.

"My meeting with the congressional members was just a briefing and I was delighted that they felt as I do on the importance of the avoidance of conflict and the maintenance of peace and order and the protection of life and property."

HUGHES, Ark. (AP) — A single-engine crop-dusting plane crashed about four miles north of here Thursday, killing the pilot.

State Police identified the victim as Charles Merte, 50, of Malden, Mo. Authorities said witnesses told them that it appeared the rear wheel of the plane caught a power line. Officers said they were told the plane nosed over after striking the line.

The Police said the plane landed upside down about 225 feet from the tree it struck. The plane did not burn.

Curly Wolves Will Shoot For Title

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sportswriter

Near misses have been a commonplace in the recent years of Prescott's quest for a District 7-A championship, but the Curley Wolves would seem to have another good shot at the title in 1969.

Several sophomores will be seeing action for the Wolves, who are about 46 strong in quantity. Five to eight players were gained in the consolidation with McRae High School, which eventually will put Prescott into 4-AA.

Injuries have been a problem in the Wolves' camp during the two-a-days, with an unreal number of pulled leg muscles. Center-defensive tackle Stuart Freeland, a 215-pound senior slated on the preseason All-State team, has a knee injury which could hamper his playing. Freeland also is a fine placekicker, so Coach Charles Montgomery is holding his breath that all will turn out fine.

Also, Randy Koger had been counted on at quarterback, before a serious hand injury put him in the defensive backfield. Still, with the hand not healed, Koger may be forced to stay out of action for an indefinite period.

On the defense, sophs Johnny Cole (180) and Jim Jones (145) have broken into the starting lineup. Cole is expected to master the nose guard spot, while Jones will put his fair height to use in the secondary.

Sandy Gautsche, a middle-sized senior, will start at quarterback, and he is a good runner. However, Sandy's passing is still unproven, though he throws the ball well.

Coach Montgomery has placed much importance on the Curley Wolves' first three games, against Hope, Stamps, and Pine Bluff Dollarway. Stamps is a power in 8-B, and Prescott opens there, before moving to Hope's Hammons Stadium the following Friday. If that weren't enough, Dollarway has ruled District 5-A for some time and has teams like Pine Bluff, Malvern, McGeehe, and Pine Bluff Merrill.

Hard for the Wolves to Match 1968

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sportswriter

For the Prescott Curley Wolves, 1968 was a year of disappointment in which one game separated them from the District 7-A championship.

That game was a 19-7 loss to Ashdown in the season finale, which gave the 7-A title to the Panthers and sent all of Prescott's dreams down the drain with a 7-2-1 season.

It will be hard, but not impossible, for the Wolves to match last fall's mark, and the crucial time should be the season's first two games against 8-B Stamps and tonight's annual slugfest with the Hope Bobcats. Head Coach Charles Montgomery will sorely miss the performance and leadership of the 15 graduated seniors, a large number to lose in Class A.

The big question mark is at quarterback, where Bill Greer held the reins quite well for two years. Of the pretenders this year, senior Sandy Gautsche (150) has the most experience but will be ably pressed by Steve Wren (140), a fiery junior who likes to scrap.

Of the rest of the backfield, Timmy Grimes (180) has played the most, gaining over 500 yards as a sophomore. Nobody else is a sure starter, but some possibilities include juniors and seniors Bill Woodell and Glenn Childers.

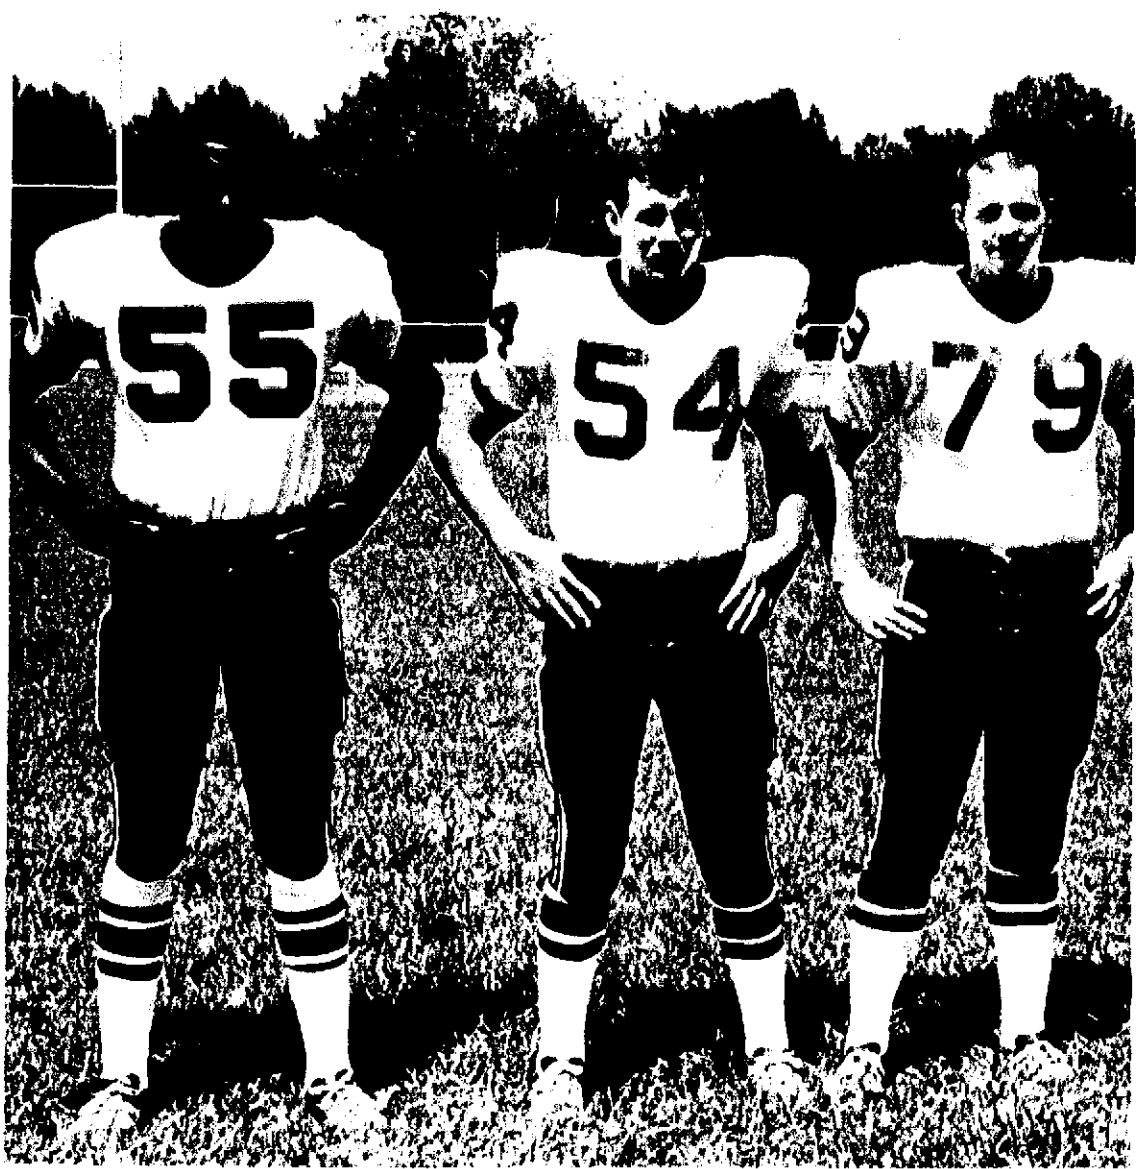

Six of the seven starting linemen in 1968 are gone, but the returnee is big Stuart Freeland, a 6-4, 220-pound senior with definite All-State potential. Freeland also handles the placekicks well, and came through with the winning field goal in a 17-14 decision over Nashville last season.

Tommy Beebe (170) and Duncan Culpepper (150) have some experience and should man a couple of the starting spots, and junior Larry Burke (190) started some at defensive tackle in '68.

To fill the gaps left at the ends and on defense, Montgomery will likely have to do some position-switching, which can't be anticipated here.

Prescott opponents can look forward to, however, is a game of hard-nosed football from the Curley Wolves, no matter who's playing where. Through it all, Prescott should wind up in the something of a paradox.

Sure, he had an agent of his own and, sure, he held out against the Cleveland Browns for more money and a long-term, no-cut contract. But, he admits, once the training camps opened and he started hearing and reading how the Browns could get along nicely without him, he says he did what any other 22-year-old aspirant would do under the circumstances—he knuckled under.

CLEVELAND — (NEA) — In this, the year of pro football's financial goal-line stand against celebrated rookies and their agents, Ron Johnson comes off as top three of 7-A along with Ashdown and Nashville, but the big games will make the difference.

"I just couldn't take it any longer," he said, pulling off his white jersey in the Browns' training room at Fleming Field. "That hold-out period was the worst time of my life. I was so mixed up. I didn't know what to do. I wanted the money, sure, and I wanted the no-cut contract, but I also wanted to play professional football."

"All I did was sit home every day, reading the papers, watching TV, and doing nothing. Every day I'd call my agent and he'd tell me, 'No progress, yet.' My father kept telling me I was making a big mistake. He told me to take the Browns' offer and get out there and play football because that's what I really wanted to do. He said I sacrificed enough by not playing in the College All-Star Game or the Coaches' All-America Game. And if I didn't watch out I'd be out of the picture completely."

So, the 13th day of the Browns' training camp, Ron Johnson called his agent, Attorney Arthur Morse of Chicago, and told him to accept Art Modell's offer of $50,000 per year. The next day Johnson was in the Browns' camp at Hiram (Ohio) College.

It's Already Boiled Down To Arkansas vs. Texas

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Forget September, October and November. Unimportant. Fluff stuff. In the great Southwest, hombres don't mess around with red tape. They get straight to the point which, as it happens, is located on Dec. 6.

All over Arkansas, Texas and points north, men are installing new picture tubes, deflecting yokes and subcarrier generators to insure themselves against television blackout on this day of days: the day the University of Texas plays the University of Arkansas for, presumably, the Southwest Conference championship . . . and maybe more.

Forget September, October, November, SMU, Texas Tech, Texas A&M, Texas Christian, Baylor and, yes, forget Rice. Finesse them. Arkansas and Texas tied for the championship last year. This will untie it (barring, of course, another tie).

The American Broadcasting System persuaded Texas and Arkansas to forego their usually mid-October meeting to shift their meeting to December for benefit of a national audience. Perhaps the nation should be grateful.

Arkansas returns 37 lettermen, the most Coach Frank Broyles has had in 12 years. The entire defensive line, including linebackers, returns, along with the fellows who made the Razorbacks' new pro-type offense go last year—guys like flanker Chuck Dicus, halfback Bill Burnett and quarterback Bill Montgomery.

This team, which posted a 9-1 record a year ago, returns tougher and better. Texas, which lost seven starters from a high-caliber offense last year, will have its hands full.

Coach Darrell Royal must find replacements for the likes of All-American Chris Gilbert and Bill Bradley, but the outlook is not that bad.

So many lettermen return

(35) that not a single sophomore will start for the Longhorns unless Jim Bertelsen, a fleet 200-pounder who shattered all freshmen rushing records, breaks through. Steve Worster and Ted Koy are big, capable runners.

James Street, the guy who took Bradley's quarterback job the third weekend last year, has never lost a game as a Texas starter. His favorite play is the notorious off-tackle option that scored many points for the Longhorns last year.

Chuck Hixson is a junior at Southern Methodist this year and, even without Jerry LeVias, he should make the Mustangs' presence felt in the Southwest. The quarterback threw 468 times, completing 265 for 3,103 yards and 21 touchdowns last year.

Texas Tech, which spilled defending champion Texas A&M and Texas last season, will depend on quarterback Joe Matulich and a tough defense for its success. The place the same responsibilities on tailback Larry Stenger and too many sophomores.

These are trying times for Texas Christian and Rice, although both should be improved from last year. They almost have to be. Rice was Aggie's, meanwhile, will 0-9-1 and TCU was 3-7.

Baylor, with new coach in Bill Beall, also appears headed for better days. Among 10 returning offensive starters is a genuine All-American candidate, 6-5, 235-pound Richard Stevens.

COACH GAYLORD SOLOMON

Beginning his third year at the Hope schools, Coach Gaylord Solomon remains in charge of junior high athletics for the '69-'70 year.

Also an assistant line coach for the senior squad during two-a-days, Solomon, 25, handles the scouting assignments for future Bobcat opponents along with Coach Straughter.

This will be Solomon's fourth year of coaching, including one year at the Hot Springs schools. He graduated from Ouachita Baptist University in 1966, where he was selected to the All-AIC team two straight years at offensive guard and defensive line-backer.

A native of Waldron, Coach Solomon is married to the former Jones Watts of Wynne, and she is employed by the Citizens National Bank of Hope. They are members of the First Baptist Church, and live at 517 West 5th Street.

Lincoln Still Looking for Experience

By Ralph Rounton
Star Sportswriter

In the school's last year of existence, the Camden Lincoln Tigers are not expected to break through in football as they did last winter in winning the state basketball tournament.

Lincoln placed fifth in 4-AA West last fall, with a 4-7-1 mark overall and a 1-4-0 tally in divisional play. Coach Tyree Webster returns a fast crew of backs and ends, but he will have problems filling the gaping holes in the line.

Cleveland Murphy (160) returns at quarterback, but his pass completion average is not good enough to key the defense away from the running game. Halfbacks Robert Hall and Eddie Jones, both senior 155-pounders, have starting experience and good speed, and Luther Reed (170) will likely handle the fullback duties.

The ends are Donnie Davidson, a proven defensive performer who is a fine receiver also, and split end Junius Culley, who in the slot set can be as far spread as 15 yards.

Jackie McElroy seems set at the center post, and guards Bernard Frazier and Charles McRae both are good blockers at 170 pounds.

Coach Webster's problem, other than lack of depth, is the absence of tackles from the scene. Sophomores or inexperienced hands will have to come through here, as well as on the defense.

Davidson and senior Calvin Carroll (180) are the defensive ends, and Carroll has All-District possibilities. No tackles return from '68, but Charles McRae and Charles Lomack (155) have experience at guard on Lincoln's six-man front.

A source of worry for many coaches, the defensive secondary remains intact at Lincoln with Robert Hall at safety and Arthur Horne (165) and Richard Brown (160) at the halfbacks.

On the whole, Webster has to worry about blocking to get his offense off the ground, and depth is nonexistent and could be serious with many injuries. The defense will be porous to running games, but the proven secondary will help against passing teams. Still, the Tigers will have to battle to escape the cellar of 4-AA West, and they should go about 3-7 overall.

Smackover Looking for Quarterback

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sportswriter

At the base of every winning team is a good quarterback, but the Smackover Buckaroos lost the only one they had to graduation and will be hard pressed to match even last year's 3-7-1 mark.

David Chenoweth called the signals and made the All-4-AA West team last fall, but he went without a replacement and Coach Don Crews may have to start an untied sophomore. Senior Bruce Hutcheson played QB in junior high, but has had an injury-plagued senior high career and is unproven.

There is some depth in the remainder of the backfield, led by junior fullback Butch Wilkins (185), a shotputter with good blocking marks. Benny Brian (180) also started in the backfield as a soph and is a good receiver, as senior Gerry Busell (160) who played defense in '68.

Good speed at halfbacks and kick returns is provided by senior sprinter John Tatum (165) and Calvin Holley, a 135-pound junior with plenty of moves. With all the runners in the world, though, a team can't win without good offensive blocking. Senior Glenn Jackson (165) started at tight end last year, but caught few passes. Bobby Trieschmann (170) could start on the other side.

At the tackles are Tim Butler (175), a senior who played some defense last fall, and junior Jimmy Cook, who is sizable at 185 but has little experience. Both starting guards return, but seniors Harry Dees (150) and Stanley Etheridge (155) will have to improve on last year's performances.

Defense will be a problem, especially in the secondary where Brian and Hutcheson will probably go both ways. As last year, the Bucks will have to depend on good performances from the sophomores and some inexperienced upperclassmen.

Actually, this will be Smackover's final year in Region 4-AA before moving back to District 8-A in 1970. The Bucks have competed in Class AA by their own choice for over a decade, but with several lean years the return to Class A will be a reality.

Schedulewise, the Buckaroos open with Class B Nophlet and Bearden, but the following six weeks will grow progressively tougher. Fairview comes up third on the slate, followed by Hope, Magnolia, Warren, and Arkadelphia in that order. Only a miracle could find Smackover over .500 after an ordeal like that.

DeQueen Is Expected to Be Better

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sportswriter

After an unpleasant 2-7-1 campaign in '68, the DeQueen Leopards should be able to get closer to .500 this time around, though the District 7-A title is still too much to ask for several years to come.

Wayne Freppon is starting his second year the helm of the Leopards, and he faces the loss of ten seniors from graduation, at least eight of whom were starters. This will be hard to replenish, and sophomores could carry an increased load in hopes for future success.

Quarterback Dick Van Beber is starting for the third year, but he is small at 5-8 and 145 pounds. He has the ability to pass, but is not recognized for his running potential.

Swift Twaunt Wilson (145) is the only other returnee in the backfield, and he also has handled the kick returns for two years. Senior Nicky Hofert (155) will see action at halfback, as will seniors Glenn Munn (180) and Ronnie Pickett (150).

Four starters return in the line, including ends Jackie Bell and Jerry Cooper, center Dennis Turner, and guard Johnny Tollett. Bell is the kicker and is a fine receiver at 6-2 and 185 pounds, and Cooper (180) is an able blocker as well.

Junior Lonnie Staggs (220) could start at one tackle, and Randy Davis (205) started on defense as a soph. Tollett is a solid 195-pound senior at one guard, and junior Glen Stepp (190) has also played defensively. At center Turner is another large senior at 195, and he has a good backup in 175-pound Mike Hooker.

The size is there in abundance, and a good reason is the fine weight-lifting program in the offseason at DeQueen. Quickness and speed in the line could turn into a problem though.

Many players will have to go both ways, which reduces the overall performance late in a game and the Leopards have always had a tough schedule to work with. This year is no exception, with opponents like Magnolia (13-0 last year), Broken Bow, Okla., and Hope. DEQUEEN

Arkadelphia Picked To Win Title

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sportswriter

If anyone ever asked for an exciting race, their wishes were granted in the Western Division of 4-AA for the coming season. As for a clear-cut favorite, who knows?

Pushover Texarkana Washington was absorbed into Arkansas High, leaving 4-AA West with Hope, Arkadelphia, Camden Lincoln, Malvern, and Camden Fairview.

The way everything shapes up, too, nobody will have it cinched until the final night of the season on November 21. Malvern and Fairview meet that evening to resume what has become a fierce rivalry, and Hope journeys to Arkadelphia the same night to settle matters.

Arkadelphia is the consensus pick of the forecasters to take the title, and their personnel is very impressive. Coach Frank Spainhaver has two fine QB's, and at least six other backs in the other three positions who could start for anybody.

Experience is evident in the line, too, anchored both offensively and defensively by 200-pounders Tom Ruthledge, an All-District performer, Ronnie Riggie, and Jim Coston. The Badgers will have depth over nearly everybody they play, and with a good kicking game could solidify into a title team.

After several consecutive winners, Fairview has gotten used to the success and will have more of it this year. Three-fourths of the backfield, including blue-chipper Jimmy Harris at fullback, returns intact. Coach George Branch may even have the champions if he can come up with replacements for the nine departed defensive starters.

Linebackers Harris and Kenny

Patterson, both All-District, will help immensely but the weaknesses are there. If the offense can control the football and the defense comes through adequately, the Cardinals will be as good as their 9-2 runnerups of a year ago.

Strangely, defending champion Malvern is more or less being left out of things, mainly because of the loss of so many quality players.

Coach David Alpe must replace two All-Starters off his offense, along nine spots on the defense. Halfback Mike McGoogan (170) will be the workhorse and Gerald Jones may get the call at quarterback. From there on, it's anybody's guess.

Defensive end Larry Lake (185) is a great tackler, and tackle Greg Hodges (200) is another returnee. But the Leopards must work on a kicking game, which was wiped out with the loss of placekicker Bruce Eflord and punter Mac Stroud. It's hard to see Malvern contending, but their tradition could make them potential spoilers with just four conference games.

Camden Lincoln may be slightly improved from '68 when the Tigers went 1-4 in conference and 4-7-1 overall, but some linemen will have to be found. Coach Tyree Webster returns two good passers in Robert Hall and Cleveland Murphy, and his defensive secondary returns intact.

HOPE (ARK) STAR, Printed by Offset

ense is impressive but unproven, and the defense could start as many as five sophomores. The attitude is excellent, though, and the Bobcats should be giant killers in 1969.

Hornets May Be Weaker This Year

BY: RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sportswriter

After compiling an 8-1 record and walking off with the 7-B title a year ago, Mineral Springs Coach Herman McAllister expects his forces to be weaker in 1969.

And although most of the opponents still point to Mineral Springs as the favorite, there could be some upsets in the standings. The Hornets return three seven from Yerger High, the good runners in Jim Kever (150), Bobcats have the tools. The of Burlie Webb, and Terry Bell (170), but still will miss the services of departed All-Stater Robbie Jester.

Tackle Milton Cowling (220) and guard Frankie Johnson are the only returnees in an inexperienced offense line, and sophomores like Jimmy Green, Randy Norwood, Brad Bell, and Denny Cowling will profit much experience from the lack of depth.

Horatio could be a contender if Coach Cary Moore can find some running backs to go with an experienced and large line. Fullback Chuck Johnson has some previous playing time, and one halfback spot could be taken up by halfback Jim Roberts.

The defensive captain is All-District end Max Adecock, a big 205-pound junior who is joined by two-way performers Hillery Hames, James Haney, Randy Lindsey, and Randy Loper.

Murfreesboro hopes to improve on its 5-6 record, but graduation left only 10 lettermen available. The defense appears to be a strong spot with eight starters returning, but the of ense is questionable. The leaders are tackle Jim Campbell (185), guard Mollie Price (185), and end Tom Crocker. QB Joe Burns is being counted on to guide the Rattlers' attack.

Dierks placed third in 7-B with a 5-6 overall record last fall, and the Outlaws should be about the same. Although 11 lettermen return, only two offensive and three defensive starters are back. Other than lack of depth size could also be a definite problem. The line will do well to average 150 pounds, with the backs in the same category.

Lewisville, after consolidating athletically with Foster High School this fall, still is looking for a leader at quarterback to run an otherwise experienced offense. Coach John Kitchens may have problems matching last year's 5-3 record, but has a good pair of receivers in Mike Mollie and Sheldy Coleman, and senior David Beatty is slated to start at QB.

After winning only once last year, Fouke returns the bulk of its team. Overall, sports in the ing form in many classes. Schools is the biggest problem facing Coach Randy Crocker. Three out of four backs return to spearhead the offense, and QB Steve Larey is a fine passer with All-District potential. The line is headed up by tackles Raymond Sams and James Dean and guards Tommy Alton and Tim Etheridge. Overall District 7-B appears to be quite balanced, with Mineral Springs battling Horatio for the top spot. Fouke could have its first winning season ever, but Murfreesboro, Dierks, and Lewisville would seem to be rebuilding and not ready to challenge for the championship.

Panthers Should Be Much Better

By: RALPH ROUNTON
Star SportsWriter

As the league's most improved ball club in 1968, the Camden Panthers soared to the second spot in 4-AA East with no outstanding performers, and Coach George Burke's forces should match the 7-4 record this time around.

Eleven seniors departed from last year's bunch, but a good nucleus of 19 lettermen remains to start things off. The problem, as in the past few years, is a definite lack of size everywhere.

Quarterback Tommy Watts (155) enters his third season as a starter, but he has not been setting fires with his record. In truth, Watts may be hard pressed by junior Jimmy Foyll (155), who had a fine junior high career.

With the graduation of workhorse Jesse Dorris, the Panthers may have trouble coming up with an adequate running attack. Tailback Bill Jordan (145) started as a soph and has speed, but he is not big enough to run over people. At slotback could be senior James Nance (145) who has experience starting in the defensive secondary.

Danny Wietecha (170) seems destined for fullback, but a worry for Coach Burke from this point is a lack of experience among the few reserves.

Last year a small Panther line was buoyed by the leadership of All-State center Randy Crowder, who is gone now. Bobby Burnham, a 160-pound senior, should gain the starting role here, but his playing time is limited.

Scrappy little Bill Epperson (155) returns for his final year at strong side guard, and his partner could be senior Joey Butler (165), a defensive starter last season. Bill Garner is the only returning tackle at 200 pounds, but the other spot will be taken up by either Danny Blount or Scott Frick, both 170-pound juniors.

Tim Womack and Pat McGuire started at the ends as sophos, but they still need size with Womack's 135 pounds and McGuire's 155. A fine defensive player as a sophomore and possibly the team's best athlete, Calvin Johnson (6-3, 185) could transfer his jumping ability to the receiving end.

On defense, linebackers Bill Meek (160) and Steve Reddin (150) are relatively small but both did well a year ago. Joey Butler is a three-year man as the top nose guard, but the rest of the first line must be replaced.

Garner will see some action here, and Burke will probably make two-way players out of Epperson and Wietecha. Johnson and Randy Garner, who could play at slotback, will either take up the other linebacking spots of Camden's 4-4-3 defense or move into the secondary, which will be completely new.

If Camden can put it all together and come up with a good kicking game, the Panthers will win quite a few. Count on George Burke to find the answers to most of those worries, and his forces will finish about third in 4-AA East Division.

COACH GEORGE STRAUGHTER

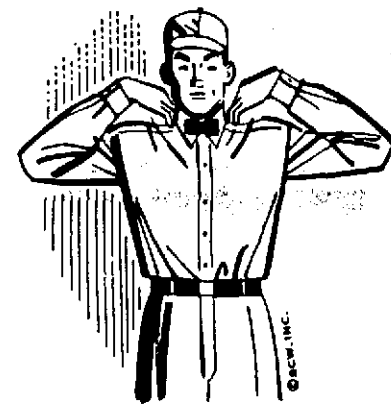

Another addition to the Bobcat coaching staff from Yerger is George Straughter, who is also teaching Algebra I in the HHS math department.

Straughter, 31, is a native of Hope and graduated from Yerger High School, where he played football.

From here he went to Arkansas AM&N, where he did not participate in athletics. He received his degree from AM&N in 1961 with a math major, and returned to Yerger that fall as an assistant coach and classroom teacher.

Presently Coach Straughter is instructing the Bobcat flankerbacks and split receivers in the various patterns of the new pro-set offense.

Members of the Lonoke Baptist Church of Hope, Straughter and wife Alice have two children, Sharon, aged nine, and Paula, age seven. They live at 601 South Walnut Street.

Tigers Will Pass A Lot Says Benson

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star SportsWriter

Defense was the name of the game at Ouachita last season, as the rock-ribbed Tiger defenders were tops in the AIC and carried the Baptists to a share of second place in the final standings.

Graduation nabbed seven of Coach Buddy Bob Benson's defensive eleven, including three who made the All-AIC squad. However, OBU opponents had best stay on their toes. They could find the Bengals as tough to master in '69 as they have in recent campaigns.

An offensive unit that sputtered much of last season displayed a new look in the Tigers' post-season 39-6 surprise of Livingston State in the Peanut Bowl. Strong-armed Barry Bennett, then a freshman, moved in as the No. 1 quarterback and gave Coach Benson plenty of reason to expect better things offensive.

"We're going to score a lot more this season," says Benson. "Probably as much as 50 times a game compared to about 18 times last year." He expects more offensive punch, and he should get it.

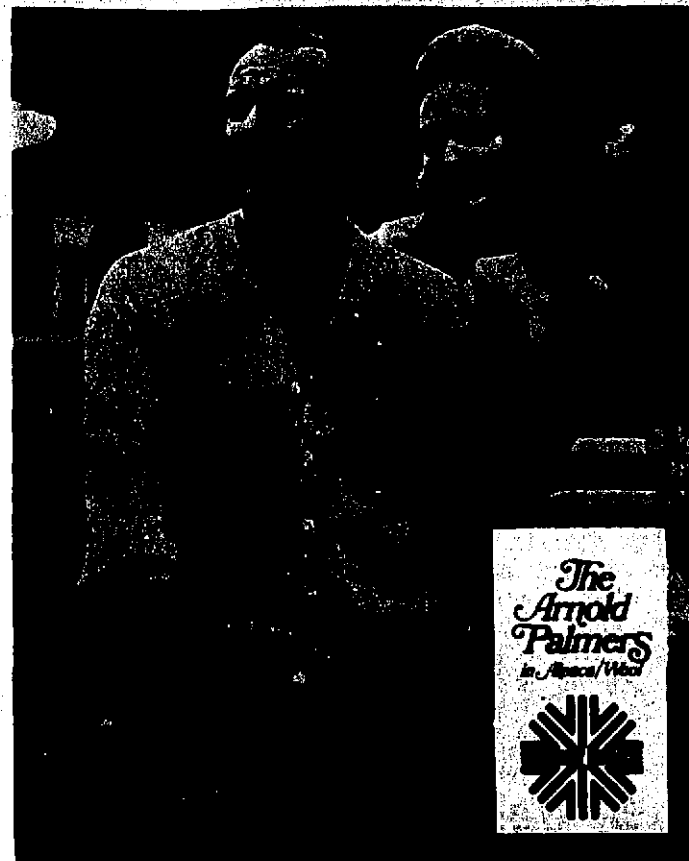

Doug Froese, the AIC's top receiver a year ago, provides an excellent target for Benson's air strikes.

Senior John Wayne Clingingham, the league's fourth best ground gainer last season, will be back at tailback, James Reynolds (195), formerly an offensive guard, may wind up with the fullback job.

Obviously the biggest problem defensively will be a lack of experience. Benson notes that "we've got some good young kids coming up, but the guys we lost won't be easy to replace."

However, Benson does have four returning starters and they have provided an excellent foundation for the rebuilding job. Ed Buffington, an All-AIC line-backer, will be back as well as Cliff Harris in the secondary. Harris moves from halfback to safety to replace Larry Woolbridge, and former QB Bobby Crouch will take over one of the halfback positions.

Oak Grove Is New Opponent For Bobcats

By: RALPH ROUNTON
Star SportsWriter

As the only new opponent on the Hope Bobcats' 1969 schedule, the North Little Rock Oak Grove Hornets are certainly the least known, as much for their personnel as their potentials in this new season.

Competing in District 5-A North, a tough basketball conference, the Hornets tied Joe T. Robinson for the 1968 crown with a 4-1 record and 6-4 overall.

All-State quarterback Walt Atkinson is graduated along with most of the line and defense, but Coach Jim Faulkner refuses to quit now. Senior Jack Dollarhide (155) is expected to efficiently replace Atkinson, and he also has played defense.

Halfback John Zinamon returns, and will probably be the workhorse offensively. Leading the list of candidates in the line is two-year letterman George Hunt, easily the biggest man on the squad at 215 pounds. Others who could see action include David Barber (160) and Ronnie Price (165.)

That's the extent of all the knowledge on Oak Grove, gleaned through about five different sources. If the Hornets can start impressively against Parkin, a perennial power, Beebe, and Rison, they would assert themselves as contenders for the 5-A North championship. But not until then.

Many Think Nashville Has Chance

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star SportsWriter

With a schedule unmatched in their district at the least, the Nashville Scrappers head into the 1969 campaign with more weaknesses than ever last year when the record was 7-4-1.

Nine offensive and defensive starters graduated, and Coach Joe Goodrum can't be very optimistic after something like that. Yet there are still many who pick Nashville on top of 7-A and close to the top of the state Class A rankings.

A crucial personnel switch moved split end Johnny Graves (140) to quarterback, a position he played on the "B" squad for the past two seasons. Graves is a fairly accurate passer and an adequate runner, and should guide the offense well if the attack stays balanced.

Consider the running game as established, with juniors Alan Ray and Roger Echols in the backfield. Ray scored five touchdowns in his first game as a soph in '68, and since then his fortune has never lessened. At 170 pounds Alan has good size, and his speed is unquestioned. Besides running with the pigskin, fullback Echols (160) is a good blocker for the many sweeps that Nashville runs. It's not a bad looking set of backs, though there is a lack of depth.

In the line, the only returning first-teamer is guard Johnny Blackwell (195), but he does have an experienced sidekick in tackle Stan Reeder (180). The other side is open to all comers, but tough little Terry Boyea (145) might have a guard spot nailed down.

Big Larry Clardy (210) is a possibility at the tackle, and he played defense last fall. The center spot was left open, too, but Jim Citty (185) could fill the bill.

There is experience out on the ends, where seniors Don McClure (170) and Billy Mac Bollinger (165) have both lettered. Bubba Smith (175), a good defensive end, will provide depth here and could start if one of the others was switched.

Ray at cornerback and Smith at end are the only defensive returnees, and it's anyone's guess as to who will play where. Coach Goodrum may be able to counteract some of the team's shortcomings, but the Scrappers' record will be dampened by inter-sectional opponents of the calibre of Magnolia, Arkadelphia, Hope, and Broken Bow, Oklahoma.

Still Nashville will fight it out with Ashdown and Prescott for the District 7-A crown just like last year, but once again the Scrappers may have to settle for second place.

For the second time in history, Class A football teams will have playoffs in 1969 to decide a champion after regular-season games have been completed.

All the Class A schools are required to complete their regular slate of games by November 14, and the following Friday would start the eliminations of the eight district champions.

Competition will continue weekly through the games, which will be exactly like the 1954 playoffs when 8-A McGehee beat Nashville of 7-A in the final game.

This playoff system, which is in use in many states such as Texas and Louisiana, makes the races more exciting and hopefully will be phased into all divisions of Arkansas high school football in the near future.

Thinks Cards Might Come in Third

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star SportsWriter

Just to mention the word "Fairview" has sent chills down the backs of 4-AA coaches for several years now, but it still would not be unreasonable to see the Cardinals in third place of 4-AA West at the end of the season.

After going 11-1 in 1967, the Redbirds came back to 9-2 last fall and second in 4-AA West. Thirteen seniors have departed through graduation, but Coach George Branch retains a good offensive nucleus.

Spunky Little Lewis Pryor, now a senior measuring 5-8 and 150 pounds, performed beautifully at quarterback in '68 with no previous starting experience, and returns mainly as a running QB but with a better passing arm.

One of the top Arkansas college prospects for 1969 is fullback Jimmy Harris, a 180-pound senior who can run, catch, kick, and even throw with authority. The offense will be built even more around him with All-State end Dicky Bush gone, but Harris gathered in more than 1000 yards rushing while leading Class AA in scoring as a junior.

Another of the seven returning offensive starters is tailback Perry Johnson, a senior 170-pounder who is plenty good enough to ruin any defense previously keyed on Harris. Like the fullback, Johnson runs as much as 10 times a game, but does the most damage on short pass receptions over the line.

A replacement must be found at wingback for Stephen Johnson, and the man just may be soph Steven Johnson (no relation), who has a fine record from junior high.

In the line, the whole left side is intact, while the right side must be completely restructured. End Mike Green (6-5, 210) has all the tools of a college player right now, and is perfectly co-ordinated for his size. Senior Dale Wheelington (190) started all last season at tackle, and may add defensive duties to his agenda.

Terry Hankins (170) is a junior guard with plenty of potential, and he blocks well alongside scrappy center Johnny Watson, a 175-pound senior.

There are four returning first-teamers, and senior Bobby Marshall (195) has a chance to break in at guard.

At the end opposite Green will be Dale Suel, a 160-pounder who saw some action late as a junior. That fairly well covers the offense, but lack of depth could be a glaring problem if injuries crop up.

On defense, the situation is bleak with only three returning starters. Jimmy Harris will do well once again at linebacker, and his counterpart Kenny Patterson (195) made All-District as a junior and scored a TD on an interception that meant the difference in a 20-14 win at Hope.

Other than the linebackers, the whole front line and monster man were wiped out, along with two-thirds of the secondary. Senior Johnny Kelley (160) returns to lead the secondary at right halfback, but after him Coach George Branch must turn either to his unproven hands for help or run more boys both ways.

The assets are there in abundance, but the problems of defense and depth seem tough enough to prevent a title. Still, the Cardinals should go at least 7-4 or 8-3 even against teams Crossett, Magnolia, and Camden from 4-AA East.

Arkadelphia Just Could Win a Title

By: RALPH ROUNTON
Star SportsWriter

Seemingly for the first time ever, and it is, the Arkadelphia Badgers have a beautiful shot at the 4-AA Western Division title.

Head Coach Frank Spainhauer took a loser last year and turned it into an 8-3 juggernaut that had the Arkadelphia fans talking out of their ears. Only eight seniors have left, and the crew for '69 not only has experience winning but they want to win more than they want to eat and sleep.

A real battle shapes up as to who will start at quarterback, where junior Bill Vining is being challenged by senior Thad Shirey. Vining (6-2, 175) started last fall and led the team to an average of 17 points per game while Shirey was injured, and now the pair give a good outlook on the critical position.

Look out for Luther Guinn, the sophomore who ran everybody to death in junior high, to break into the starting backfield. Luther set state records in the 100, 220 and 440 during track season, and he should be one of the best. Actually, the Badgers already have an All-District halfback in senior Carlos Murch (170) and a fine junior fullback in Ricky Tucker (175), so the backfield seems unmatchable.

As if that weren't enough, the consolidation with Peake High brings over halfbacks Wayne (200) and Gary (190) Anderson, both with 10.2 speed and experience. Looking at the lineup makes an opposing coach cry.

Out at the ends, junior Bill Hurley (175) is returning starter who also handles the placements. On the other side it will either be Freddie Lookadoo (160) or Gary Hillis (155), both seniors. The tackles are loaded, with All-District Tom Rutledge (195) at the top, followed by juniors Jimmy Coston (235), Ronnie Riggie (205), and Jimmy Hankins (195).

Mike Caldwell returns to start at guard, and carries his 175-pound frame well. A trio of juniors, namely Brent Bridges (165), Deryl Godwin (160), and Andy Bell (155), will provide a first-teamer for the other side and fresh reserves, Dicky Rudolph (180), another junior, and Larry Cheatham, a 160-pound senior, are listed at center.

On defense, Bill Hurley and Jackie Yeager (175) man the end spots on a regular monster set-up, and Rutledge and Coston return at the tackles. A noseman must replace Keenan Crawley, but that should be little problem with the depth available.

Ricky Tucker played linebacker last fall, and Lookadoo could step into the spot vacated by All-District Bobby Shepard. Quarterback Vining also holds down the monster man spot, but Spainhauer would probably like to keep him from going both ways now.

Two-thirds of the secondary is back, including Gary Hillis and Nolen Smith, a 160-pound senior who also started in the offensive backfield last season but won't be needed anymore. The extra halfback position might be taken up by junior high hero Adlai Johnson, now a 175-pound junior.

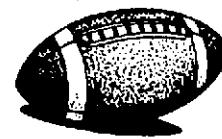

All of this is the makings of a powerhouse, and the Arkadelphia Badgers could credibly go all the way to 12-0. It sounds unreal for the college town, but it will take a big effort for anyone to catch the Badgers.

Egad, friends, the seasons do roll by! It seems it was only yesterday I accompanied the mayor to the ball park for the opening game of the horsehide schedule and here we are at the start of what promises to be a thrilling pigskin season.

Opening day of the college schedule is a mite on the slim side. However, what it lacks in quantity, it—kaff—kaff—more than makes up for in quality, with such nationally-acclaimed powers as UCLA and Oregon State, Wake Forest and North Carolina State and Southern Methodist and the Air Force set to have at one another.

You'll be delighted to know the Hoople System is functioning in mid-season form and has some surprising predictions to pass on to you.

In the big game of the day (make that night, Mr. Printer), the Air Force will win its aerial duel with host SMU. With both elevens boasting strong passing attacks, this shapes up as a high-scoring affair, with the Air Force launching the biggest bombs in a 37-32 conquest of the Mustangs.

The UCLA-Oregon State and Wake Forest-N.C. State contests are conference clashes which should bring out the best in the boys. At Los Angeles, host UCLA will edge past Oregon State's Beavers, 13-10, while the Wolfpack-Deacons blast at Raleigh, N.C., will be the surprise of the day. The Hoople Upset Special of the Week pegs Wake Forest (27 lettermen and a new coach, Cal Stoll) to shatter N.C. State's national aspirations by scoring a thrilling 22-18 victory—har-rumph!

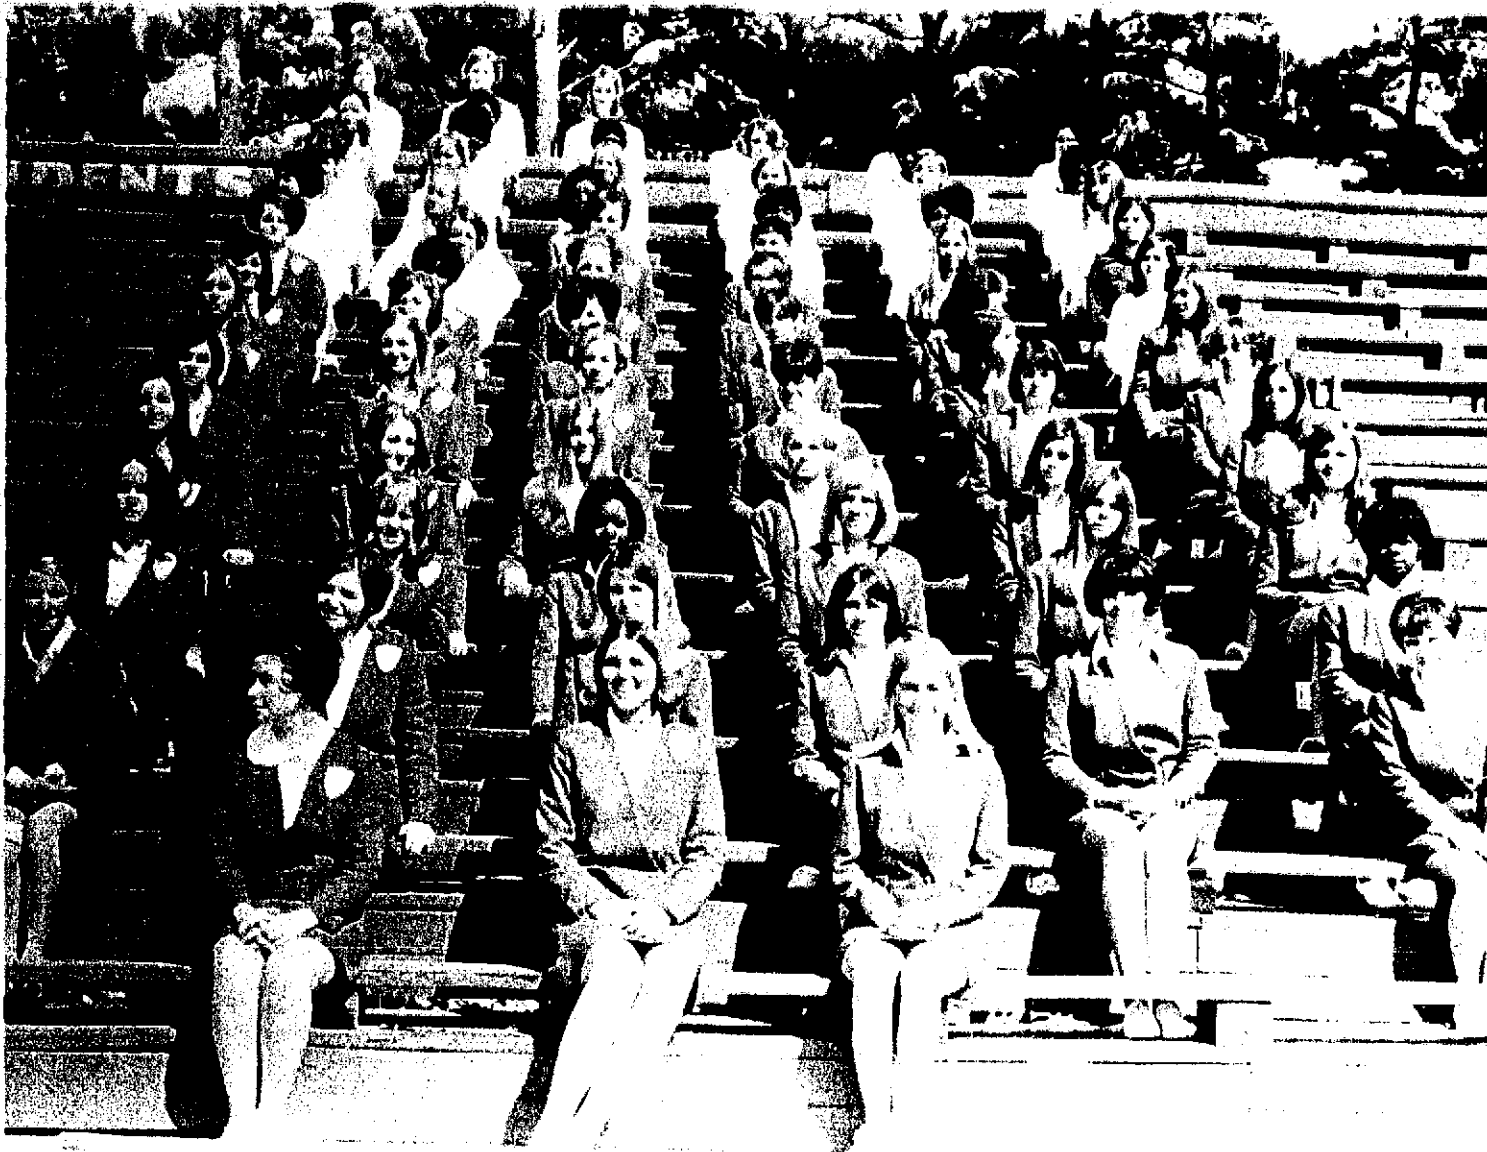

Ohio State and Ohio University, the mastodons of Buckeye State football, are due this week but four other Ohio powers are ready to do battle. Miami and Kent State of the Mid-America Conference take on two strong independent clubs.

The Hoople System sees Xavier over-matched in its meeting with Miami and forecasts a 31-13 win for the Redskins. Kent State, where the women (10,300) outnumber the men (9,700), figures to outpoint Dayton by a 16-15 count—um-kumph!

Two other contests worthy of special note are the Cincinnati-West Virginia and Drake-Louisville meetings.

With "Fearless Flinger" Greg Cook graduated to the professional Bengals, the Cincinnati Bearcats are in for rough sledding in their invasion of Morgantown. I predict an easy 31-16 victory for West Virginia.

The Drake-Louisville game shapes up as an old-fashioned barn burner. Drake's Gary McCoy, one of the best collegiate passers, will be the difference as he throws the Bulldogs to a

Penn State Favored to Win in East

By LEE MUELLER
NEA Sports Writer

NEW YORK (NEA)—The way Joe Paterno explains it, eastern football is not that bad, see. It's just that few teams actually try to be that good.

The Ivy League, for example, is full of miniature halfbacks who double as chemistry majors. Dow Chemical took the only first-round draft choices from Ivies last spring.

"We've gotten ourselves into a national pigeon hole," says the Penn State coach. "People have got to look at the whole picture instead of pointing to the Ivy League and saying, 'Look, that's eastern football.' They've got to see that, until recently, only six schools were working at having good football."

Now there are seven.

"Boston College is working at it now," Paterno said.

"Add Syracuse, Lehigh, Pittsburgh, Army, Navy and our team and that's seven. Seven. In places like the Big 10 and Southeastern Conference and Southwestern Conference, everybody tries to produce winners. We've got seven and for a long time there were only six."

Paterno, who has Penn State floating on a 19-game winning streak—the longest in the country—has been working at it. Last season's Coach of the Year, he guided the Nittany Lions to an unbeaten season, an Orange Bowl victory, a No. 2 national ranking and the Lambert trophy—which goes to the East's best team.

This year, says Paterno, Penn State must be better because the competition is better. "Everybody'll be gunning for us," he said.

True, the Lions must replace some tackles and a tight end (Ted Kwalick) in the offensive line, but their defense—led by All-American linebacker Dennis Onkotz and tackle Mike Reid—is virtually intact.

Runningback Charlie Pittman, one of the country's outstanding open field runners, heads a solid backfield.

Penn State's toughest competition will, of course, come from the six other independents who "work at" playing football. Among these, Syracuse seems the chief menace.

Coach Ben Schwartzwalder, who has had 19 consecutive non-losing seasons at Syracuse, should add No. 20 this year. His offense retains 10 of 11 starters, but defense—forever an Orange problem—could hurt.

No Ivy teams figure to challenge Penn State and

District 7-A Adds Foreman To Schedule

BY: RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sportswriter

Once more in 1969, District 7-A has been realigned with the addition of Foreman from 7-B and the dropping of Arkadelphia Peake and Hope Yergeer due to consolidation.

And, once again the Ashdown Panthers seem to have the inside track for the championship, which they wrested away from Prescott, Nashville, and Yergeer last fall.

It would appear to be a three-team race involving Prescott, Nashville, and the defending champs, with De Queen joining Gurdon and Foreman as also-rans.

Ashdown did lose All-State quarterback Bill Perry, but Coach Dick Hays has talked about moving senior Wiley Coley (775)

Syracuse for the Lambert trophy, but then neither do Army or Navy. Pitt, however, has 34 returning lettermen, 18 of which were regulars last year. New coach Carl DePasqua, despite the Panthers' usually tough schedule, might grow to like the place.

In the Ivy League, Pennsylvania, behind quarterback Bernie Zbrzezni, is favored, although all eight teams are about equal—or unequal, as the case may be. Harvard, Yale, Princeton and Dartmouth appear strongest of the rest.

NOPE (ARK) STAR, Printed by Offset into the signal-caller spot. Jim Eskew made All-District at tailback as a sophomore, and he is also a competent linebacker on defense.

The Panthers could suffer from a slight lack of depth in the line, but they solved last year's problems for a 9-3 record and only lost ten seniors. However, Ashdown finds out for themselves early with Hope in the opener and Nashville in an early showdown tonight.

Prescott has put together three consecutive winning seasons with an overall record of 19-8-3, and with a few breaks could take it all this time around. The consolidation with McRae High School has added about eight more players to the squad, and this could make plenty of difference.

a workhorse halfback in junior Timmy Grimes, who gained over 500 yards as a 10th grader. Center Stuart Freeland (215) is a good bet for All-State honors, but a crucial factor will be the performance of quarterbacks Sandy Gautsche and Steve Wren.

Label Nashville as a darkhorse, though the Scrappers might well return to tradition as 7-A's rulers. That's not too likely this time, even though tailback Alan Ray returns after a whirlwind soph year. The QB spot is undecided between senior Johnny Graves and soph Danny Keaster, and Coach Joe Goodrum will have to pick deep into a crew of sophomores who weren't overpowering in junior high.

The line is anchored by guard Johnny Blackwell (190) and tackle Stan Reeder (185), and others slated for duty include seniors

Don McClure (175) and Bubba Smith, a fine defensive performer. It doesn't look like Nashville will be able to improve on their 7-4-1 mark a year ago.

De Queen has had problems keeping football players, and at last word only 28 were out for the squad. Coach Wayne Frepson has three-year starter Dick Van-Berber at quarterback, and a fair halfback in speedy Twain Wilson.

The Leopards have pretty good size in the line, but depth will be a glaring problem unless everyone can stay healthy. The kicking game is set with All-District end Jackie Bell (185).

Gurdon's Go-Devils were winless in '68, but return nine starters to try for the upper division of the standings. Much is being counted on from senior speedster Gary Guber, who could run back a few kicks and break a game wide open.

Though there is experienced personnel in the line, tackle John Norris (210) is the only one expected to gain post-season honors. Chances are the Go-Devils could pull an upset or two in '69, but the defense will have to come through.

The district's newest addition is the Foreman Alligators, who were dominating 7-B but may take awhile to adjust to the new league. They opened at Nashville last Friday and returned several key players from last fall's 8-4 squad.

District 7-A looks like a balanced conference, with Prescott and Ashdown drawing the top and Nashville right behind. De Queen could surprise once or twice, but don't count too much on Foreman or Gurdon.

Region 4-AA E. Division Is Balanced

By Ralph Routh
Star Sports Writer

In the year after Magnolia's landslide 13-0 powerhouse, Region 4-AA's Eastern Division will have much more balance in a five-school league.

El Dorado Washington no longer exists after consolidation this summer, leaving Magnolia, Crossett, Warren, Smackover, and Camden for 1969.

Last year's surprises were the Camden Panthers, who came out of the pack to wind up second to Magnolia, and the same pair should be joined by Crossett in the top division. Warren and Smackover still are having problems, but either could develop into the spoiler category.

Magnolia Coach Don Hubbard returns to a healthy portion of his offense, but in his platooning system eight defensive starters graduated. The Panthers have the best backfield in the Eastern Division with QB Billy Joe Daughtery, tailback Robert Hasley, and fullback Wayne Miles.

Hubbard's problems will be replacing All-State tackle Hal Dodson and a full crew of defensive linemen. Linebacker Johnny Gean made All-District last fall, but more experience and depth will be needed.

At Crossett, Coach John Pierce had an exceptional 8-3 record with a rebuilding lineup composed almost entirely of underclassmen in '68, but lack of size is still a problem.

Twenty lettermen return, including tackles Mike Fox (210) and Jim Toler (195) to anchor the offensive line. Mark Pierce, the coach's son, gets the call at quarterback and has good size at 6-2 and 185 pounds. The Eagles will be at disadvantage on defense for the lack of size, but the desire and winning tradition will keep Drossett from a bad season.

Camden went 7-4 overall after going 1-7-2 in '67, but the Panthers also have worries about size. Coach George Burke may have a big problem in getting a leader at QB, but he has several possibilities in Jimmy Foyil and Tommy Watts.

Bill Jordan is regarded as a power runner at 140 pounds, so blocking will have to be at a premium. All-State center Randy Crowder graduated, and the main experience is at tackle with Bill Garner and Pat McGuire. Warren's Lumberjacks went 3-7-1 last year with fair personnel but no quarterback. The same situation exists this year, as Coach Jamie Raper has a couple of good halfbacks in Drew Toole (170) and Bruce Bennett, but nobody has experience as a signal-caller.

The 'Jacks should be tough on defense, with seven returning starters and a couple of 200-pounders. Wayne Steadman, tackle, and Garry Brooker at nose guard are good bets for All-District honors.

Label Smackover's status as shaky, with many holes to fill from a 4-6-1 team last year. All-District quarterback David Chenoweth is gone, and he had no backup last year.

Junior Butch Wilkins (185) is a solid two-way performer at fullback and linebacker, but others will have to go on offense and defense as well. Halfback Benny Brian is a fair receiver, as is end Glenn Jackson, and there may be a distant hope at quarterback. Bruce Hutcheson played there in junior high, but has been injured and played little in senior high.

That's the shape of things in 4-AA East, where this writer goes with Magnolia as a favorite in the absence of an established consensus for the top spot.

COACH JOHNNY MCMURTRY

Newest of the HHS coaches is Johnny McMurtry, who is entering his first year of coaching.

At 23, McMurtry is the youngest of the Hope staff, but he has been placed in charge of the defensive backfield and will coach the Bobkitten basketball squad this winter.

He graduated from Arkansas A&M in May of this year, with a major in physical education. For the A&M Boll Weevils, Coach McMurtry started two years at defensive halfback, and also lettered on the swimming team there.

A native of Warren, he went to high school there and was an All-District halfback for two years. Also he lettered three years in basketball and two years in track.

McMurtry is a member of the Calvary Baptist Church in Warren, and he is unmarried and residing at 114 East 6th Street in Hope.

Higgins Comments On Bobcat Team

BY: RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sportswriter

Early last week Head Coach Ronnie Higgins commented that the staff has pushed the Bobcat squad harder this year than they have ever been pushed. There are still 43 stickers, more than any Bobcat team in a number of years, and they want to win. The senior leadership is there, the desire and potential are there, and the depth is there. Their mission is to haul off the 4-AA Western Division championship and beat the Eastern winners for the big trophy. Below each player is named and identified as to number, weight and height, with individually quoted remarks from Coach Higgins.

SENIORS (14)

JIMMY ALFORD—Starting for the third year, Jim has moved defensively from linebacker to tackle, and starts at right tackle on offense. Wearing No. 74, he stands six feet and weighs 195 pounds. "Has strengthened our defensive line. Great athlete, can play just about anywhere."

DON BINGHAM—This is Don's first full season of football, and he has shown good desire and plays tackle presently on the "B" squad. He is 6-1 and weighs 190 pounds, and wears No. 78. "Came out on desire. Has lots to learn on blocking rules, but wants to play."

RONNY BROWN—One of 4-AA's finest defensive ends, Ronny will go both ways at offensive guard as long as his injury-prone legs hold up. A three-year starter, Brown will wear No. 68 and he has good size at 6-0 and 185 pounds. "Has fierce desire to win. Plays difficult end position on defense with confidence, and also is a fine placekicker."

LEE DAVIS—A transfer from Yerger, Lee is a one-year letterman who has won a starting job at left end offensively. With good size for an end at 6-1 and 170 pounds, Lee is No. 27. "Has come along well. Will provide depth in defensive backfield too, and will return kicks."

ISAAC HENDRIX—One of the transfers from Yerger, Isaac is a running back with good speed and agility who could do some kick returning. At 5-10 and 160 pounds, he hits with authority too. "Can handle the ball well on punts and kickoffs, but is continuing to learn the pro-set offense."

JESSIE HENRY—A hard-hitting guard who also played at Yerger, Jessie will see action also as a defensive end. Not too large at 5-9 and 160 pounds, Henry will be No. 61 and his name will be on the list often. "Good hitter. Still learning some phases of the defense, but has two years' experience behind him."

THOMAS LLOYD—The starting fullback for Yerger's 7-1-1 team a year ago, Thomas has asserted himself in practice as a shifty runner and will see plenty of action this senior season. Wearing No. 42, Thomas stands 5-9 and weighs in at 150 pounds. "Has looked good from the first. Insures us with depth in the backfield, he doesn't start now but he could for most teams."

ARTIS MARTIN—Hope's first breakaway speedster in some time, Artis showed his worth in the Ashdown game with a 95-yard punt return for the Bobcats' only score, and he gained 120 yards rushing. With good size at 6-2 and 175 pounds, Martin fills his No. 30 jersey well. "The key to our offensive success. Also a fine pass receiver, he only needs a few blocks to spring loose on any play."

MIKE MCQUEEN—After starting on defense as a junior, Mike is now going both ways as an offensive tackle and a defensive end. Big man in the offensive line at 6-1 and 200, Mike will wear No. 76. "His progress has been fairly slow thus far. Needs a killer instinct, but is a potentially great lineman."

LARRY MCWILLIAMS—Almost a sure bet for All-District honors, Larry enters his third season as linebacker but goes both ways as an offensive guard. Has good leadership quality and is mean on the field, and his size (6-0, 190) makes him a definite college prospect. Larry will wear No. 66. "As fine a linebacker as any around, but still lacking a little at guard. Good fighter, always around the tackle."

HIRAM REYNOLDS—Another newcomer, Hiram brings good size and depth to the offensive ends. With jersey 89, he is another big man at 5-11 and 190 pounds. "Has improved from the first day, but still has a way to come. With the same continued desire, he could be playing before very long."

DAVID STILL—A three-year man at end, David moves into the line after playing split end as a junior. A fine punter with better than a 40 yard average, Still fills his No. 83 well with his 6-0, 190-pound frame. "May be our best receiver. Can play defense if we need him, but he also works with the specialities since he punts. Makes our kicking game solid."

RANDY STILL—In his third year of football, Randy finally broke into the first team defensive secondary last week. Now 5-8 and 145, he has improved his strength through the weight program and wears No. 44. "Probably knows the different coverages better than any other defensive back. Needs to be a bit more aggressive, but wants to play regularly."

TERRY VINES—Playing flanker back and defensive monster man, Terry is trying to play for the first time since junior high and is showing good progress. Has a bad problem with arthritic ankles, but still has fair speed to go with his build (5-9, 160) and is No. 45. "Terry has missed some practices with his ankles, but wants to get in the action. Good hitter, likes to get in the thick of it."

JUNIORS (15)

CARL BOSTIC—After skipping his sophomore year, Carl has come back and is being played mainly at linebacker on at 150 pounds. "Has looked good from the first. Insures us with depth in the backfield, he doesn't the "B" team. Has desire, is a future prospect for our defense."

ANTHONY DAVIS—One of the scrappiest ball players on the squad, Anthony has been playing in the defensive secondary. Not very large at 5-7 and 140 pounds, Davis will be No. 24. "A corner in the defensive backfield, he is showing aggressiveness on pass defense but has a size disadvantage."

WINSTON FRANKS—Winston came out late and missed the preseason two-a-days, but the coaches have high hopes that he will improve and be a regular eventually. The biggest player on the team at 6-4 and 235 pounds, he came out too late for the first game and hasn't been assigned a number. "Is learning the nose man spot on defense, and could turn into a good one."

STAN JAMES—Now playing in the defensive secondary, Stan is a returning letterman who was a monster man as a soph. He has aggressiveness but is not large at 5-9 and 145 pounds. "Plays with experience in the pass coverage, but still is learning the responsibilities of a halfback."

GARY JONES—The starting running back beside Artis Martin, Gary has good size, quickness, and has 10.6 speed in the 100. Wearing No. 32, he measures 5-10 and 170 pounds. "Good runner and blocker. Pushed hard by Thomas Lloyd, and the pair give us depth at running back."

ROBERT JONES—Out for football for the first time, Robert is playing offensive end. He wears No. 86, and is 5-10 and 145 pounds. "Still trying to find himself as a footballer. Wants to play, and will profit from "B" team experience."

RONNIE MASSANELLI—As a junior with no previous starting experience, Ronnie was given the quarterback job by Coach Higgins and conditioned himself into a 170-pound frame last summer on the weight program. He wears No. 10, and has the height at 5-10. "Has a good arm, a good head, and leads the team well. Still needs more experience to sharpen his confidence."

ROGER NEWTON—Now the starting flanker back after an ankle injury to soph Tommy Miller, Roger has improved greatly and runs his patterns with deceptive speed. At 5-10 and 175 pounds, he will take jersey No. 12. "A good receiver who played quarterback at Yerger last year, Roger looks slow but can outrun a lot of defensive backs."

CLIFTON PEEVY—Another of the transfers from Yerger, Clifton has been a good hitter though he came out late. Presently he is working out at left end offensively and defensive linebacker, and with his 6-0, 175-pound frame will wear No. 89. "Still needs to learn defensive techniques. Good fighter, will start for the "B" team and may play for the seniors in the future."

RICHARD STUART—Running behind Randy Wright at center, Richard played for Yerger last fall and is now centering for the "B" squad. Wearing No. 55, Richard stands 5-10 and weighs 180 pounds. "A fairly good center who is still improving. Working on blocking and he is picking up the rules well in practice."

JOHNNY TURNER—Presently the backup flanker back behind Newton, Johnny has very good speed but has some problems handling kicks. He will be No. 39, he stands at 5-10 and weighs 155 pounds. "Could be a big help in the future at returning punts and kickoffs. A good receiver, he is working also in the defensive secondary."

SIDNEY WALLER—Called by some the hardest hitter on the squad for his size, Sidney has filled the safety spot quite well entering his second season. Also, he has grown to 5-9 and 155 pounds, and he will be No. 25. "Sure tackler and pass defender. Gets in on many tackles at the line of scrimmage."

DONNIE WILLIAMS—Donnie came out for football with no previous experience since grade school, and he has worked into shape while learning the plays at tackle. Wearing No. 79, he is big at 6-0 and 210 pounds, and wants to play. "Came out on desire and has started from scratch but is improving. Still finding himself."

CALVIN WILLIS—A natural team leader with lots of strength and quickness, Calvin is replacing All-State Mickey Allen at nose guard besides backing up the offensive guards. "Good athlete. Has the ability to whip opposing linemen, and has good size at 5-11 and 175 pounds."

Calvin will wear No. 65.

RANDY WRIGHT—Started several games at center as a sophomore, and is now fitting well into starting spot. He wears No. 54, and measures 5-10 and 175 pounds. "Works well with Massanelli on all snaps, and is a pretty good blocker. An asset ahead for next year."

SOPHOMORES (14)

RODNEY BURKE—A real possibility at guard in future years, Rodney now has to play behind Brown and McWilliams. Wearing No. 64, he stands 5-10 and scales 175 pounds. "A hard-nosed blocker with good instinct. Loves to hit, and will definitely be a first-teamer in another year."

RICHARD BUTLER—One of the more promising of a good bunch of sophs, Richard has suffered a badly aggravated groin pull, and is still recovering. He will have No. 79, and is another large lineman at 5-10 and 185 pounds. "Has a career ahead of him as a tackle and his desire is strong. Still will be slow coming back off the injury."

KENNETH ELLIS—A first-year footballer, Kenneth lacks size but hopes to make it some day as a receiver. He will be No. 88, and his measurements are 5-7 and 130 pounds. "Has worked hard in practices. A sticker, wants to play and will learn from the "B" team games."

TOMMY FRAZIER—Quarterback for the "B" squad, Tommy will gain plenty from that experience. Injury kept him from playing much junior high ball as a frosh, and he is growing into his No. 11 jersey with 5-9 and 140 pounds. "Good execution. Should improve as the protection and blocking in front gets better. Good desire and a fair passing arm."

STEVE HARRIS—The most pleasant surprise of the two-a-days, Steve is one of the four starting sophs on defense as a fine linebacker. Wearing No. 15, Harris is built at 5-11 and 160 pounds. "Has a nose for the football. Always around the tackle, and was a quarterback for the juniors too."

VANDER LLOYD—Playing offensively and defensive tackle, Vander is working hard and profiting from "B" squad experience. With No. 53 on his back, he stands 5-10 and weighs 180 pounds. "Came out to play football. Good attitude, is working his way up the ladder."

RALPH MARTIN—A newcomer to football, he is trying the end position offensively, and also has a good attitude. He will wear No. 31, and is a 5-9, 145-pound speedster. "May get to see some action late in the season. Was a real loss to the offense, though Newton has replaced him well."

LYNN NORTON—Maybe the best potential defensive or offensive tackle on the squad, Lynn has already broken into the starting lineup on the defense. At 6-2 and 195 pounds, he fits well into his No. 73 jersey. "Had a great junior high athletic career. Aggressive, his good hitting is an inspiration to other underclassmen on the team."

DAVID POWERS—Better known as "Bubba", this tackle has had knee problems so far but is working into better shape and is counted on for help in the line. At 6-1 and 255 pounds, he will wear No. 90. "Hasn't been exceptional yet, but will make progress with time and experience. Still unsure on some of the blocking rules, but has given good effort."

RUSTY QUILLIN—Another 10th grader who has broken into the first defense, Rusty played a fine game at monster man at Ashdown, recovering a fumble and making numerous tackles. Wearing No. 22, he will play at 5-10 and 155 pounds. "A fine defensive ball player. Is working at running back for the "B" team, but has a fumbling problem."

JACK TURNER—Injuries hampered his junior high playing, but Turner made it through the two-a-days and is slated at defensive halfback and running back on offense. Small at 5-8 and 130 pounds, Jack will wear No. 23. "Was hurt through a good bit of two-a-days, but is getting back healthy and will gain playing time for the "B" team."

RAY WHEELINGTON—His 9th grade season was a masterpiece for the Bobkittens, as Ray averaged over a touchdown and 115 yards rushing per game. Now starting at defensive halfback, he will wear No. 29 and has the size at 5-10 and 160 pounds. "Good on pass coverage. Some senior ball late last year has helped him get started. He is still working at running back for the "B" squad."

TIM WHITE—A solid shot in the future for end or maybe tackle, Tim is a good receiver and a fine athlete. Stayed in shape playing baseball, and reports at 6-1 and 180 pounds while taking jersey No. 85. "Has the height and good hands to make a fine high school end. Good enthusiasm, he wants to play somehow and someday could help on defense."

For the 1969 Hope Bobcats, pride of the individual is at stake Friday night with the annual Prescott game. Last week the Cats were embarrassed 14-6 at Ashdown, but the potential is there and this writer sticks with his convictions that this crew will take the 4-AA Western Division when it's all over. That's my confidence, in this my final season as Star Sportswriter.

SHOULDER PADS

Magnolia Still to Be Powerhouse

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sportswriter

In football, the Magnolia Panthers now have won 22 straight contests since early in 1967, but this year should determine whether Coach Hubbard's regime will be perennial powerhouse. Last year the Panthers had it all, platooning with completely separate offensive and defensive units, and showing the prowess of many college teams. They went 13-0 and easily won the 4-AA title, but the losses at graduation were heavy.

Therefore, the 1969 season will show whether Hubbard has a permanent supply of blockers to start a dynasty, or whether the last 22 games were just a short strike of gold. Seven offensive starters are gone including five linemen and All-District quarterback Mike

Waters. Coach Hubbard has a replacement at QB in Billy Joe Daugherty, a 170-pound senior who had an outstanding passing record in junior high but has played secondary on defense for the last two years.

Tailback Robert Hasley returns to start for the third year, and his 165-pound frame makes him hard to handle. Hasley is also a fine receiver, and should be an instrument in an increased passing effort.

Last fall's slotback, Larry Eddy, made All-District and will play for the Arkansas Razorbacks, but the coaches are satisfied with replacement Gary Adams, a 160-pound senior who comes from the defensive backfield but has slotback experience from the "B" team.

Wayne Miles should make All-State at fullback, with his talents as a tough runner, good passer, catcher, and an invincible blocker. At 200 pounds, Miles is the kind of fullback coaches hope for but rarely get. The problem is the offensive line, where the tackles and ends were wiped out. Look for senior Bobby McMahan (185) to handle a tackle spot, with the opposite side manned by junior Paul Rogers (180). Randy Nance (185) lettered as a soph at end and could start, along with Butch Jones, a 175-pound senior.

Only three first-teamers are back on defense, but they should form a good nucleus. What may come out of all this is Hubbard hedging and putting three or four of his better athletes on both offense and defense. This would be with the hope that the offense could roll up some early leads and the reserves could help shoulder the load. The Panthers may not come out of it unscathed, but they should be able to repeat as champions in 4-AA's Eastern Division.

Also a baseball pitcher, Coach Tate made All-Conference in baseball at AM&N and recently pitched the Friendship semi-pro team to the state championship at Conway.

Boll Weevils Should Win AIC Crown

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star SportsWriter

Gary Tate stands 5-8 and scales 145 pounds. Bruce Norwood is 6-6 and 245. For all their contrast in size, though, they are importantly tied together in the 1969 football hopes of the Arkansas A&M Boll Weevils.

Tate, the hard-nosed winner from Little Rock Central, and Norwood, the impressive tight end transfer from Pine Bluff and the University of Arkansas, together put a new confidence in the Weevils' offense which could bring the AIC crown.

In early September of last year, A&M found it would have to do without Tate, who was slow recovering from a leg operation. Without the scrambling signal caller who had run, passed, and kicked the Aggies to the top of the league in 1967, the A&M attack a year ago never turned productive.

Norwood had a good spring both blocking and receiving, and Tate will have several more good targets in split end Larry King and flankers Ronald Martin and David Arnold.

As a freshman in '68, Ed Bradley won the tailback job and gained 515 yards on the ground, and fullback David Fundeburg has emerged as an able replacement for departed Ronnie Sabbatini. For the last 16 years, A&M football titles have come in clusters with not much dead space in between. The Weevils won five times in the six-year period of 1953-58, and they were in on four out of the last six titles since 1962.

Coach Bill Calaway has two returning offensive tackles, Billy Mitchell at 245 pounds and Mike Ferguson at 230. All-AIC Elijah Ward is joined by Herbert Head in the guard spots.

The defensive unit earned the major credit for the Weevils' two big wins last fall. They shut out State College's Bears 9-0, and later on knocked Henderson out of a chance for the championship 16-3. Replacements must be found for safety Shelby Lowrey and nose guard John Beauchamp, but returnees include All-AIC line-backer Jackie Grayson, ends Gary Chilcoat and Mike Lake, tackles Connor Carlington and James Hardcastle, and secondary men Larry House and Steve Sessions.

COACH JOHN ALLEN ROSS

HHS' new Head Basketball Coach is John Ross, a native of Hope who is also assisting in football.

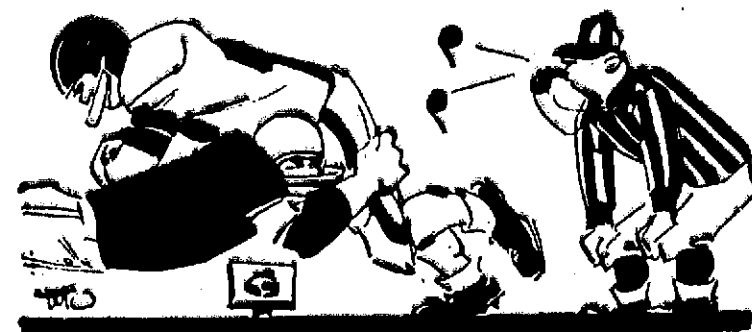

Ross, who is 27 comes to Hope from Camden Harmony Grove, where his senior basketball teams went 18-10 and 21-7 in

Referee Gaffes

A catalogue of gaffes by college football officials does not exist. There are several reasons for this, not the least of which is that referees' mistakes are only human mistakes. Anyway, as one writer recently pointed out, there are few men in the world capable of lifting such a large book.

Pick one year out of a hundred, for instance. Take 1959. On Oct. 17, Southern Methodist scored the winning touchdown on a pass against Rice, but referee Charles Davis called the play back, claiming the passer was over the line of scrimmage.

The next day, game films showed the passer was not over the line of scrimmage. "I just missed the call. I was wrong," Davis admitted.

In November, Indiana apparently scored the winning touchdown in a scoreless game against Ohio State at Columbus when its fullback seemed to carry the ball into the end zone. He was pushed out again and no touchdown signal was given. Later, pictures showed the fullback well into the Buckeye end zone.

That same year, a whole crew of officials assigned to the Upper Iowa-Dubuque game failed to show up on Saturday afternoon. They thought it was a night game.

Champions Lose a Lot of Starters

By: RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sportswriter

After losing two out of their first three games in '68, the Malvern Leopards hit the right path with a 21-0 victory at Hope and wound up with the 4-AA Western Division crown. That was last year.

Eight offensive and seven defensive starters graduated last May, giving Head Coach David Alpe a monumental task in trying to repeat last fall's record of 8-3-1.

Gone are All-Staters Jim O'Neal and Connell Williams, as well as kicker Bruce Efrid, line-backer Doug Pilcher, and quarterback Mac Stroud. They formed the nucleus of Malvern's last two powerhouses, and now there isn't much left.

Senior Gerald Jones (150), a fine basketballer, is in line at quarterback and already has started in the defensive secondary. Jones will operate the Leopards' bifocal offense, in which a "short back" lines up just to the side and one yard behind the quarterback.

The short back is Mike McGowan (175), a senior who played defensive cornerback in '68. Junior Keith Bruns (150) is being counted on for a starting role in the backfield, and senior Mason Gray (170) has experience at wingback.

Offensively, the line suffers from lack of playing time. Greg Hodges (205) is a two-year letterman and plays defensive tackle as well, and Ricky Starks is a 190-pound senior who could play at center or end.

One tackle spot could be filled by Ronnie Jones (165), who played a bit as a junior, but the best lineman around could be Larry Lock, a 195-pound senior who has been superlative before at defensive end.

Ben Williamson (190) has defensive experience at end and could help on offense, but the big problem is a lack of depth between the two units. End Johnny Dial will most likely carry the punting chores, but Efrid's kicking will be severely missed in close games.

Overall, it looks like Malvern will lose a few in 4-AA West, with a tough schedule to boot. Before the 4-AA opener with Hope, the Leopards meet four consecutive powerhouses in Hot Springs, Pine Bluff, Russellville, and Little Rock Catholic.

Figures Bobcats Will Be No. 1 in West 4-AA This Season

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sportswriter

6 - Harding
7 - Southern State

This will be the third and final football edition for me as Hope Star Sportswriter, and the peerless prognosticator will really have to hustle to match last year's preseason predictions.

Besides correctly picking Magnolia for the 4-AA Eastern Division title, this forecaster went against the tide and chose Malvern to win the Western Division of 4-AA, and that they did. The '68 edition also picked Texas to win the Southwest Conference, and they tied the Arkansas Razorbacks for the crown.

Also last fall this writer went out on a limb and called for the Hope Bobcats to place second in 4-AA West, but this year for the first time the Cats get the top choice in an upset pick over consensus Arkadelphia and Fairview. That could be interpreted as hometown favoritism, but be rest assured it is not.

With the determination, leadership, and experience on this Hope squad, it is with plenty of reasoning that they sit on top of the group below, along with the Magnolia Panthers as repeaters in the East.

As is the custom, the predicted finishes come under 4-AA, the AIC, and the Southwest Conference, while other districts and conferences are analyzed elsewhere in the edition. So with eyes closed, here are the 1969 choices.
